I
"Don't light the seventeenth."
After we'd eaten the cake
I took it
And put it on my windowsill.

II
One rainy day in September,
When the green summer leaves had begun to turn,
I lit the candle
In a fit of melancholy.

It burned bright at first
Then it flickered.
Bright. But then it flickered,
As if unsure of itself.
As if not knowing whether to be the most exciting candle
I'd ever known . . .
Or just to be.

The flame though . . .
In it was a tint of then:
Auburn
And crimson and gold.

Not to let it melt away too soon
I pinched the flame quickly
But got burned.

III
I took it for granted for a while:
Until the first storm of snow.
I was cold
And maybe my candle
Would make me feel warm inside.
Its comfort though, was fleeting.

The wax dripped . . .
Slowly . . .
Gracefully . . .
As if imitating the snow outside,
Until it had formed its own drifts.

Keeping myself removed,
I blew it out this time,
So as not to get burned.

IV
I had waited.
Suddenly I knew.
As the freshness came into the air
And the first flowers
And green.

Warm enough now,
I opened the window first.
It burst into flame when lit.
The fresh air and all.

Exciting this time
It got me involved.
I remembered . . .

V

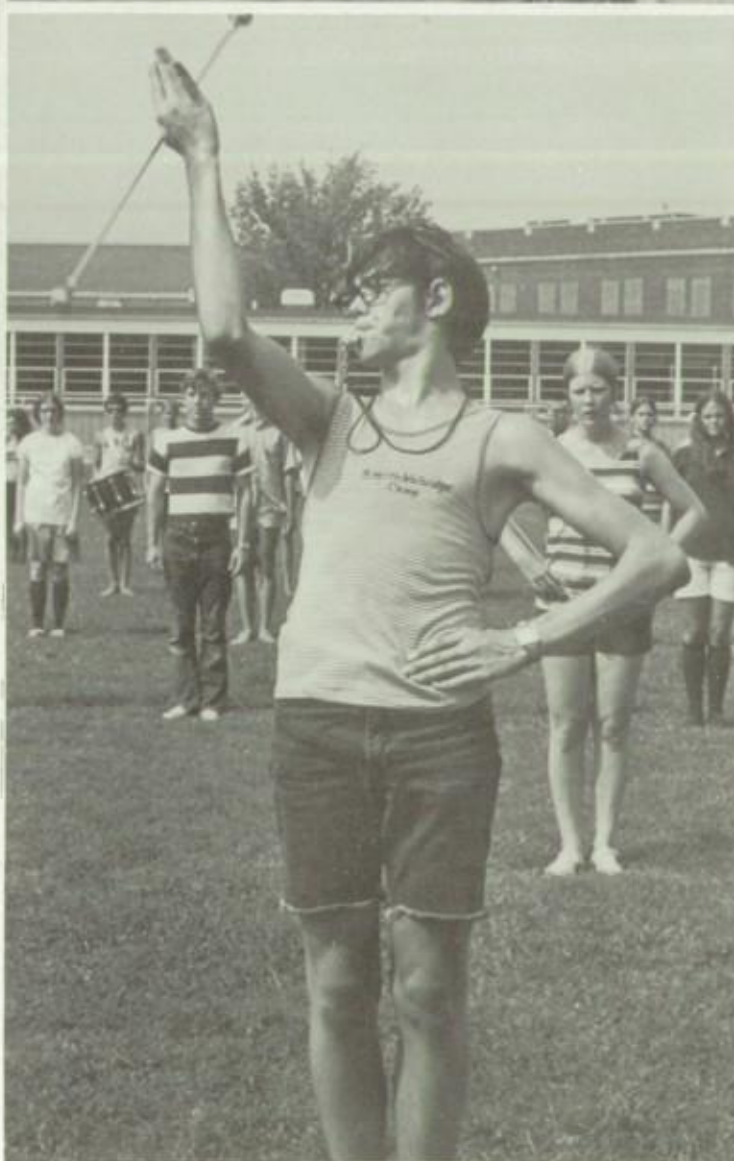

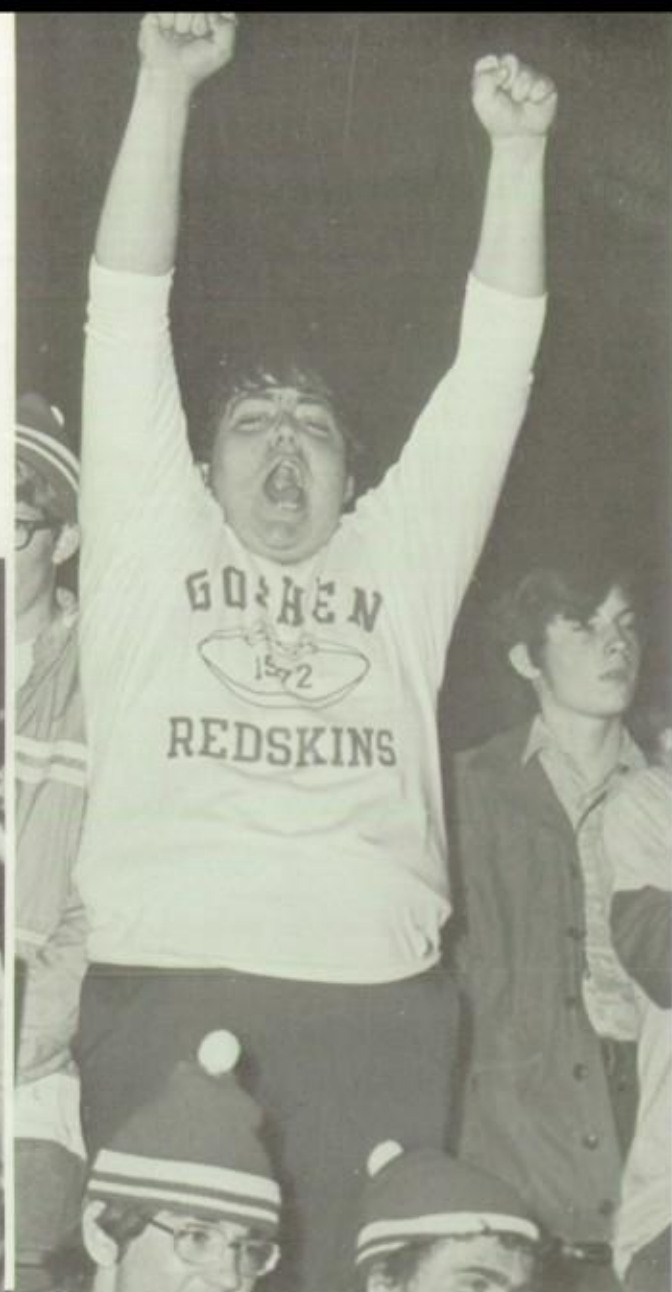

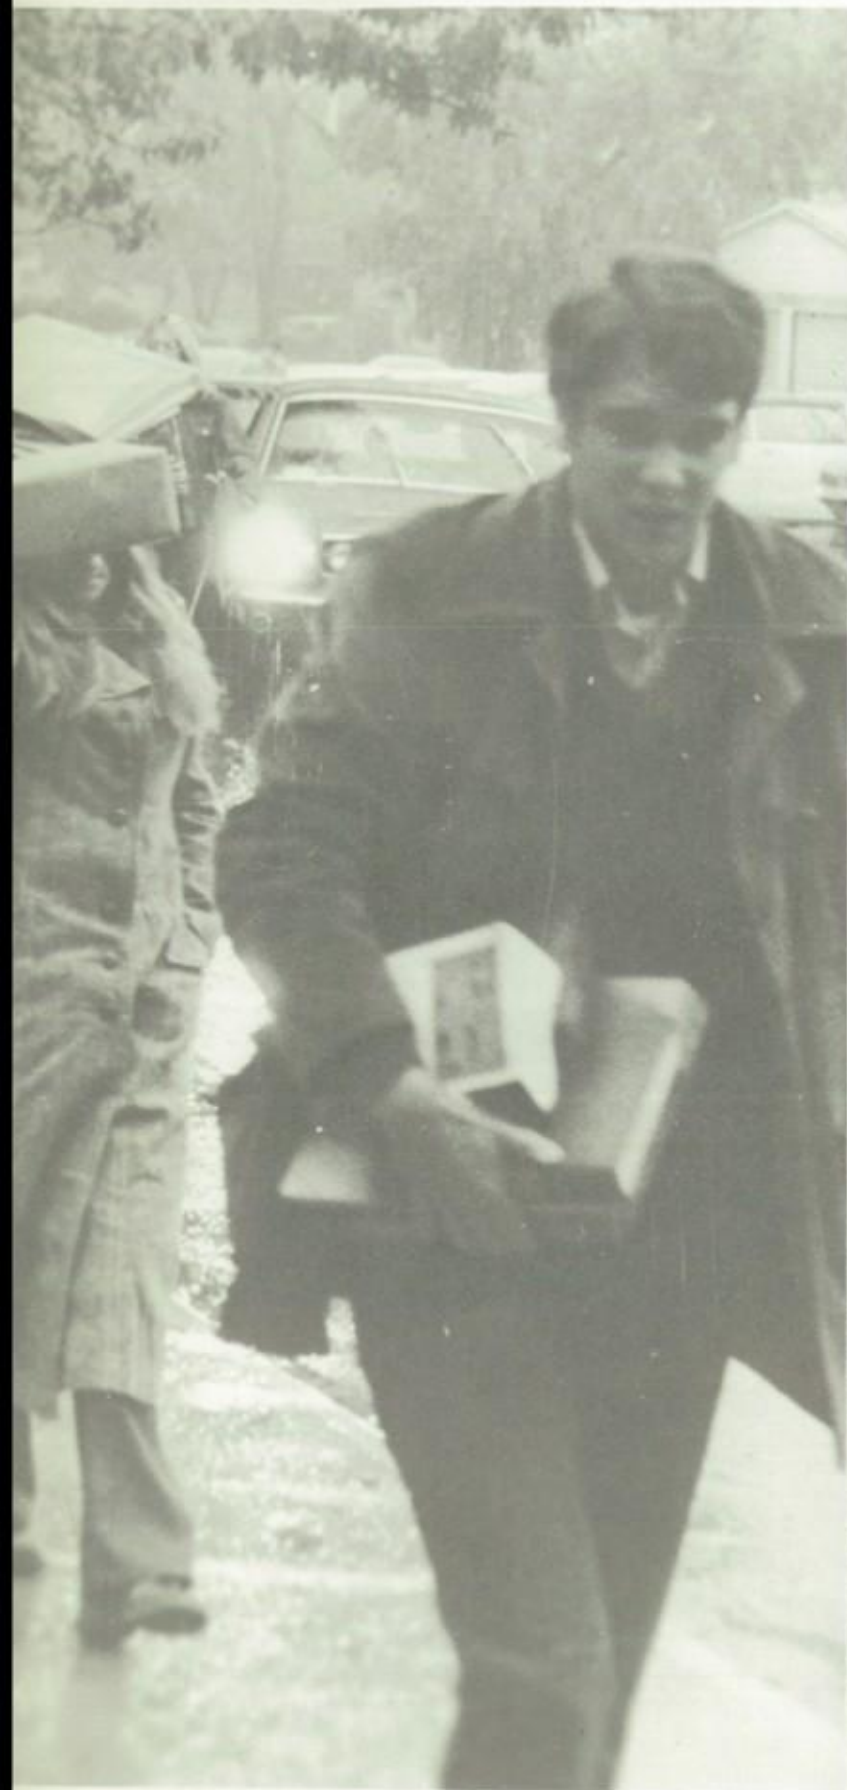

Suddenly, a wisp of smoke.
My wandering mind returned.
It had burnt out
Sooner than I'd expected.

I told myself it wasn't important.
Just a silly
Candle
You know.
But I guess it had made itself important
When I wasn't looking.

G.H.S. was privileged to have the first experimental field made with Prescription Athletic Turf. It was designed by Dr. W.H. Daniel from Purdue University. The field has a special drainage bed, hooked to a pump, that removes excess water. This does not cover the entire field, however; it is 160 feet wide and 300 feet long, not including 35 feet on each side. It also has heating coils that can warm up the field when it freezes.

To complement the field new bleachers, an eight-lane rubberized ME-2 track surrounded by a four foot retainer fence, and a new 10 by 24 foot press box were added.

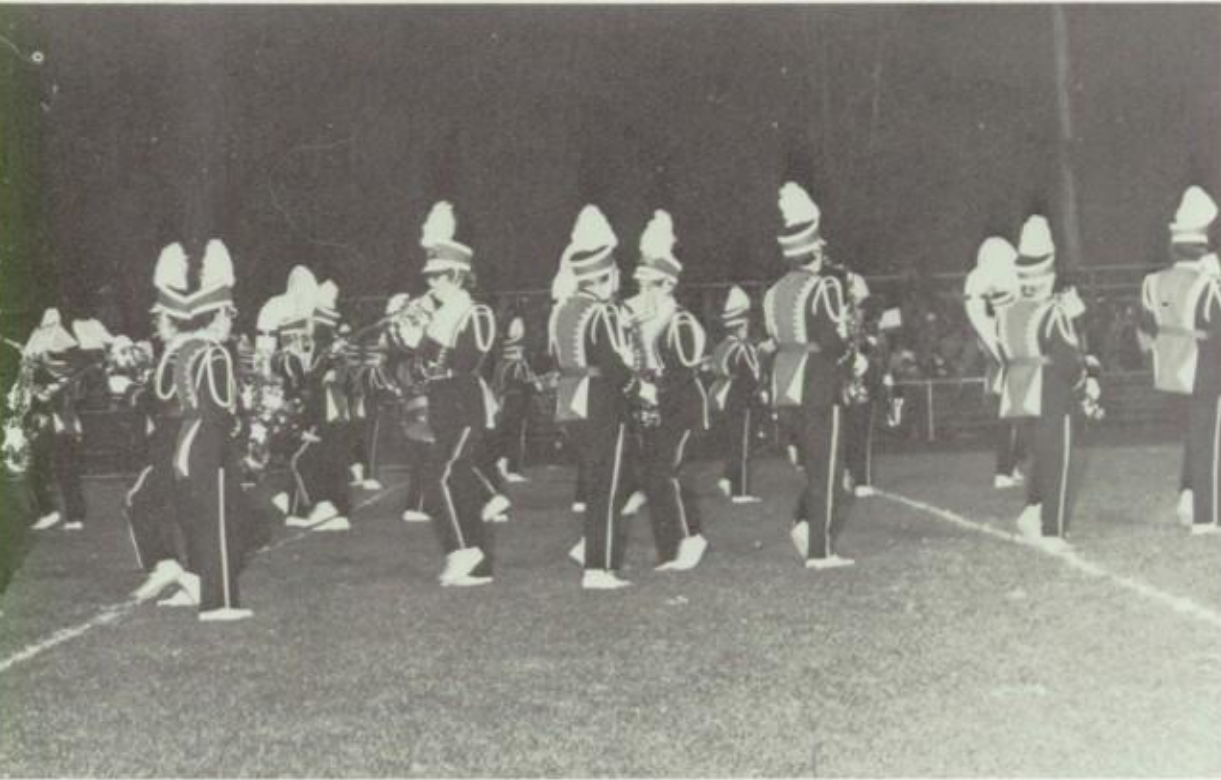

Bob Lou catches pass for a touchdown.

Although often taken for granted at half times, Goshen football wouldn't be the same without the Goshen High School Crimson Marching Band. Putting in much hard work under the direction of Mr. David Plank, the Marching Band not only had to perform regularly but constantly learned new songs and marching patterns.

John Reiniche was drum major for the second straight year. He won an Outstanding Drum Major award at the NISBOVA (Northern Indiana School Band Orchestra and Vocal Association) Marching Contest. Deb Lewallen was head majorette. Dan Hertzler was 72-73 Outstanding Bandsman.

Our lives were formed by the candle's mold

The Sunshine Society hosted a convention of Sunshine Societies from sixteen surrounding counties in early October. The girls started preparation for their convention soon after school started. They worked hard to make enough flower favors so each delegate could have one. The convention activities included performances by the Crimsonaires and the Thespians, an exhibit of artwork by GHS students, and a fashion show with SSS members as models. Sunshine sponsors were Mrs. Seymoure and Mrs. Zuck.

The Future Homemakers of America held a Halloween costume party for their members. Besides bobbing for apples and doing other traditional Halloween activities, there was a prize for the best costume. The prize was won by Deb Riley, president of FHA. Miss Blair was the FHA sponsor.

" . . . in a fit of melancholy."

Even amid our various activities, some of us took time for introspection. We looked inward to try to discover why we did what we did. We hoped to catch a glimpse of where we were going. A few, perhaps, even wondered where we had been.

Hot tunes by Concert Band

Mr. David Plank finished a successful second year as director of the GHS Concert Band. The band performed three concerts during the year. They had a winter concert in December, played for the GHS Music Parents Club in February, and had a senior concert in May, at which time awards were given to the members of the band. In addition to these concerts they competed in the Northern Indiana State, Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Association's organizational contest in March. They received a superior rating. The awards given at the senior concert were the United States Marine Youth Foundation Award which went to Dan Hertzler, who plays French horn, the Max Williams Contemporary Music Award which was given to Peter Goering, who plays tenor saxophone and bassoon, and the John Philip Sousa Award which was won by Phil Cripe, who plays trombone.

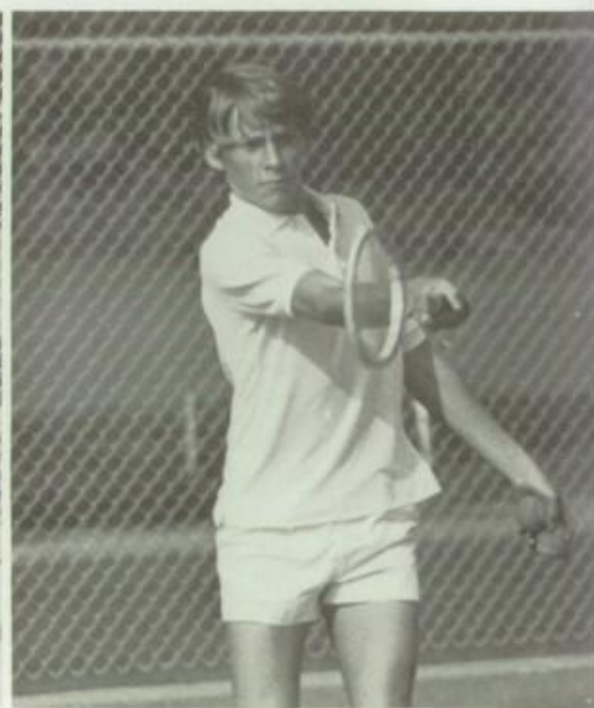

"It burned bright . . ."

Creating spirit was a full time job, with many different workers. Cheerleaders practiced, invented new cheers and of course did the real thing at the games. Others contributed their time by decorating the school with the cries of battle.

Coach Weaver's cross country team finished their season on October 15 with an 8-6 record. The sectional, held at Ox Bow Park on the twentieth, pitted 21 area teams against each other. Goshen finished tenth. Varsity cross country letters went to Glen Cook, Gary Miller, and Dan Thimlar. Ken Miller received the Most Valuable Player award this year.

"Bright. But then it flickered."

The tennis team, under Mr. Beeson's coaching, finished its regular season with a 6-4 record. The team members who lettered this year were, in order of their playing positions on the team, Robin Yoder, Larry Stutzman, George Hardie, Jim Swartzentruber, Charles Ainlay, and Brad Miller. Robin Yoder received the Most Valuable Player award this year.

The Science Club spent much of their time working with X-rays. They visited the Turner Lab at Goshen College, supplementing their own demonstrations at their regular meetings. The club also worked with light, colorblindness, and microwaves. Ed Geleske was President, Linda Bender was Vice-president, and Paul Herr served as Secretary-treasurer. Mr. Bowers was sponsor.

The Euclidian Club and the Computer Club were names used to describe the same thing. This is because the Euclidians spent almost all of their time at Goshen College working with its computer. Tom Johnson, President of the club, studied computer science at the college during mornings, supplementing his work with the club. Newton was Vice-president and Tom Wilder was Secretary-treasurer. Mr. Haney served as sponsor.

Artists Independent, the G.H.S. art club, carried out several projects during the year. One project was decorating downtown store windows at Halloween. They also painted a mural for the walls of study hall 312. Several other murals were painted by members of the club. Kathy Sorg and Terry Brill were the President and Vice-president of the club during first semester. Mike Serikow and Doug Yoder replaced them for second semester. Mr. Neuenschwander was the sponsor.

This year's Homecoming Queen was Becky Mock, who was escorted by Galen Hershberger. Senior attendants were Lee Ganger, attended by Dave Cripe, Nancy Lantz, attended by Jon Raber, and Mary Weiland, attended by Tim Ogle. The Junior Class was represented by Theresa Pestow, who was attended by Rick Peck and the Sophomore representative was Connie Miller, attended by Dick Chiddister. After the game, which was played against DeKalb, a dance was held with music provided by the Murphy Brothers.

This was a year of change for the TOMAHAWK. It was produced and written in a completely new way. The most obvious change was that of a smaller size paper. The TOMAHAWK was printed with an off-set method, which allowed the staff to do more of the actual set-up of the paper. The school newspaper class was where the majority of the work was done for publication. But many of the contributions also came from students who were not enrolled in the course. The staff set these goals for this year's paper: to lead in achieving an informed, involved student body; to accurately inform our community about its high school; to provide direction when direction is lacking from all individuals who are in positions of leadership; to encourage the participation of all organizations in releasing pertinent school news to the school paper and local media; to take stands on various relevant issues through editorial comment.

at Career Center*

KURT CRIPE — Broadcasting

DEB HURLBERT — Medical Office Assistant

JILL RENSBERGER — Medical Office Assistant

This has been the second, and quite successful year for the Elkhart Area Career Center. The school took in nearly 900 students, 54 of them coming from Goshen High School. Students learn new trades much as Computer Programming, Key-punch, Horticulture, Cosmetology, Radio and T.V., Small Engine Repair, and several others. After graduating from E.A.C.C., students are placed in jobs of their field of training. Classes are quite different from those of most home high schools; the classes are more informal and relaxed. Morning classes are from 8-11, and afternoon classes from 12-3. There is a 15-30 minute break whenever the instructor permits. Students may either go to the student lounge or to the Snack-Bar, where students of Restaurant Management may serve them.

As shown here, there was much involvement from the students, as they were led by enthusiastic G.H.S. cheerleaders in yelling on their team. Cam Boyer served once again as mascot. Below is the scene after the first game between Goshen and Elkhart Memorial, Goshen winning 57-52.

Team Two Triumphs Over

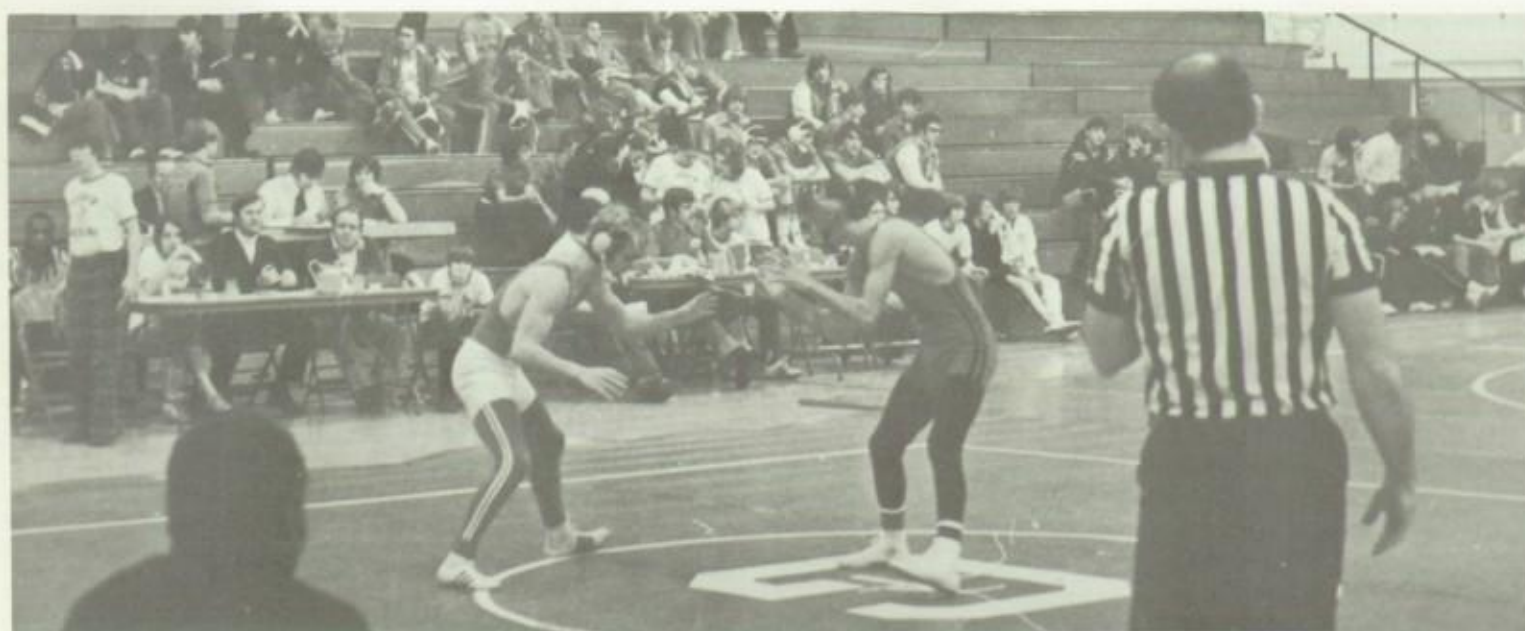

All Competitors

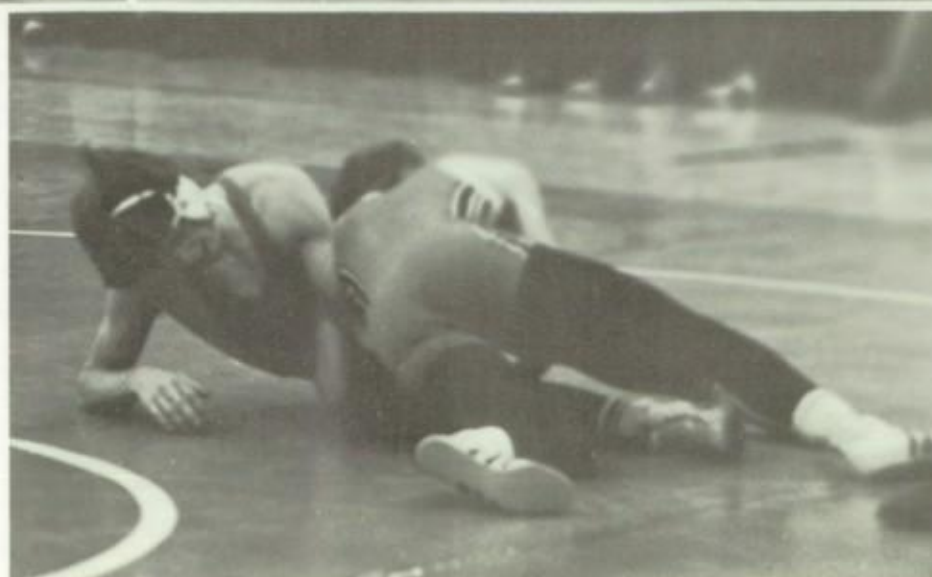

This has been the third consecutive year for an intramural basketball team at Goshen High School. The top ten scorers of the season were Ron Mullet, Phil Roose, Steve Spotts, Bill Stoner, Don Schnoebloen, Ken Coffman, Joe Sample, Gary Miller, Robin Yoder, and Brad Miller. Team Two was the champion. Team members were Bill Stoner, Tim Ogle, Bill Bickel, Ron Lambdin, and Steve Hostetler. Mr. Weaver again served as sponsor.

Wrestling Gains Popularity Through Student Convocation

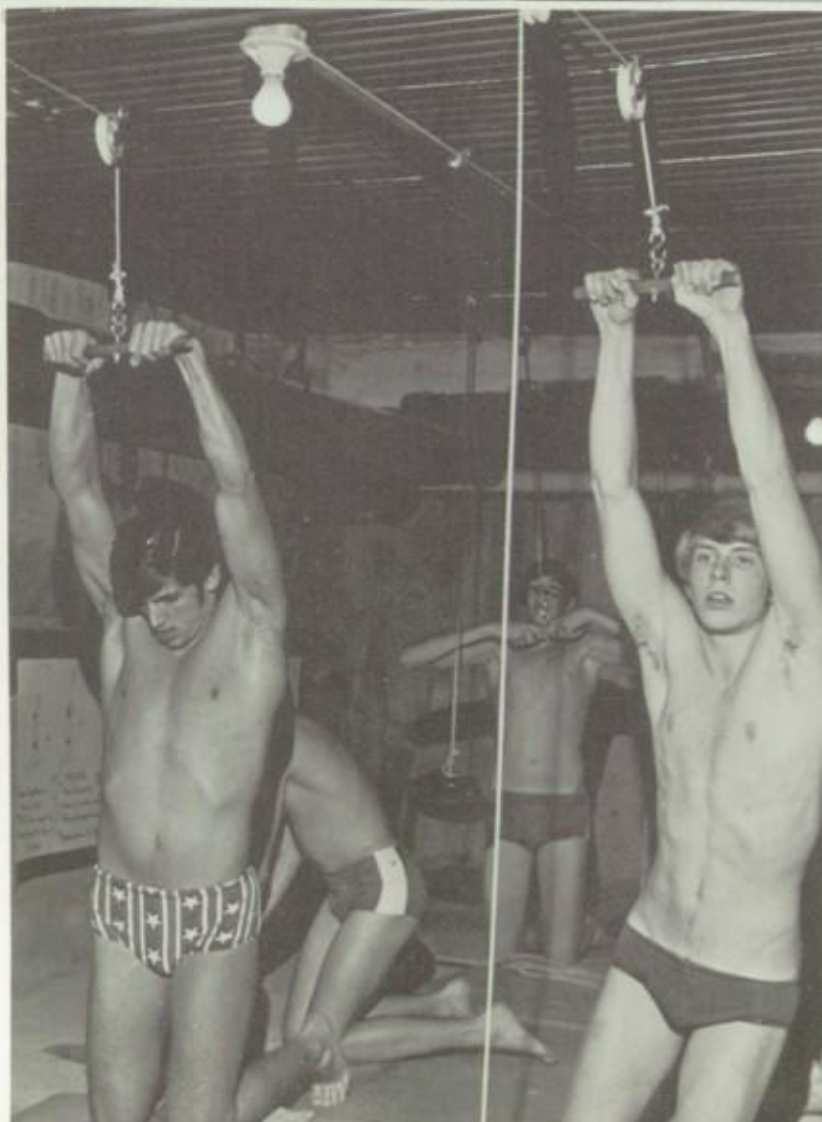

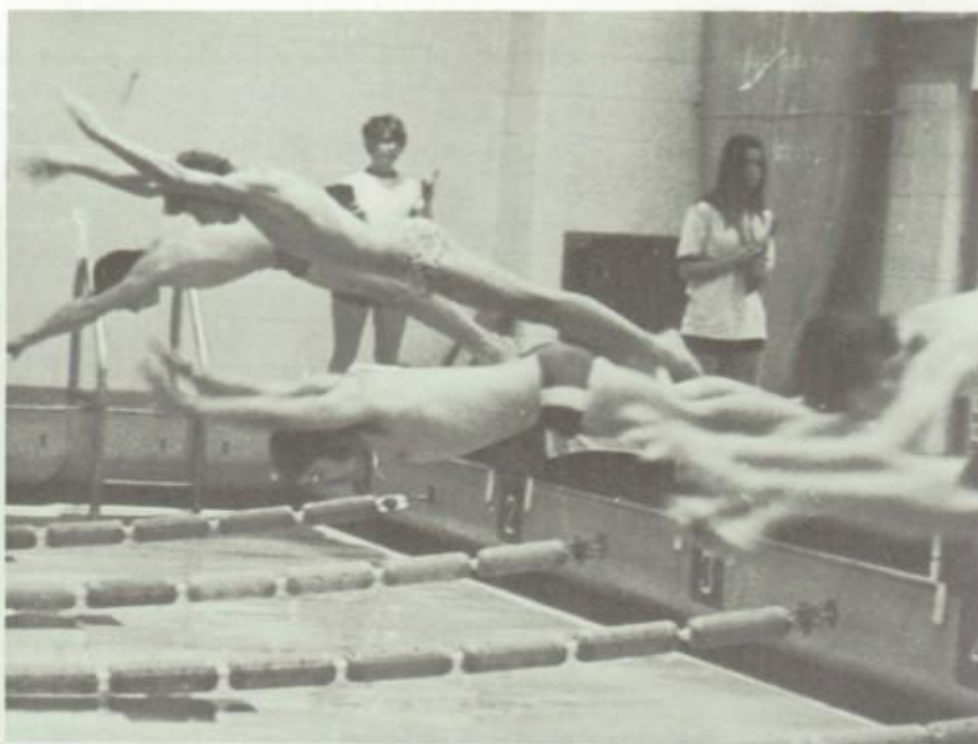

Goshen's wrestling squad finished their season with a 4-4-2 record. None of the grapplers managed to advance to state competition this year. The team provided an enjoyable hour away from studies for the GHS student body at the end of November with a special wrestling convocation. The varsity squad tied with the Warsaw team 28-28 while Goshen's B team won with a score of 37-33. Galen Hersberger received the Most Valuable Wrestler award. Mr. Dechant was the head coach and Mr. Kirkton, of the Whiteman Junior High faculty, was the assistant coach.

Swimmers Have Perfect Dual Meet Season

It was a brilliant year for the GHS swimming team. They ended their regular season with a 16-0 record. The team finished third in sectional competition and sixth in the state meet. Dennis Fult received the award for the most valuable member of the team; Bryan Rathke was the coach. Mr. Weaver assisted with the training and coaching of the team during the Christmas break.

Language
Clubs Experience
Different Cultures

The French club met on the first Monday of each month throughout the school year. Any GHS student who has taken at least one year of French may be a member. Deb Cotherman and Jan Thomas were co-presidents of the club. Anne Duntley was secretary and Sue Yoder was the treasurer. The club sampled French cuisine, sang French songs and saw films and filmstrips dealing with various aspects of French culture. Using money earned at the Holiday Tourney concessions, the club had a Mardi Gras party at the Holiday Inn. They viewed the film "Desirée" after their meal. Mr. Fancil was club sponsor.

The Latin Club met monthly also. Officers were: Randy Clouse, president; Tim Ogle, vice president; Sue Bloss, secretary; John Reniche, treasurer; and Mary Mowry, public relations. The club had a Christmas party and their traditional Roman Banquet. Tim Ogle and Colleen Schwab reigned as emperor and empress of this banquet which was held at the First Presbyterian Church's Westminster Hall. Any person taking Latin may be a member of the club. Mrs. Minier was the sponsor of Latin Club.

"... Feel warm inside."

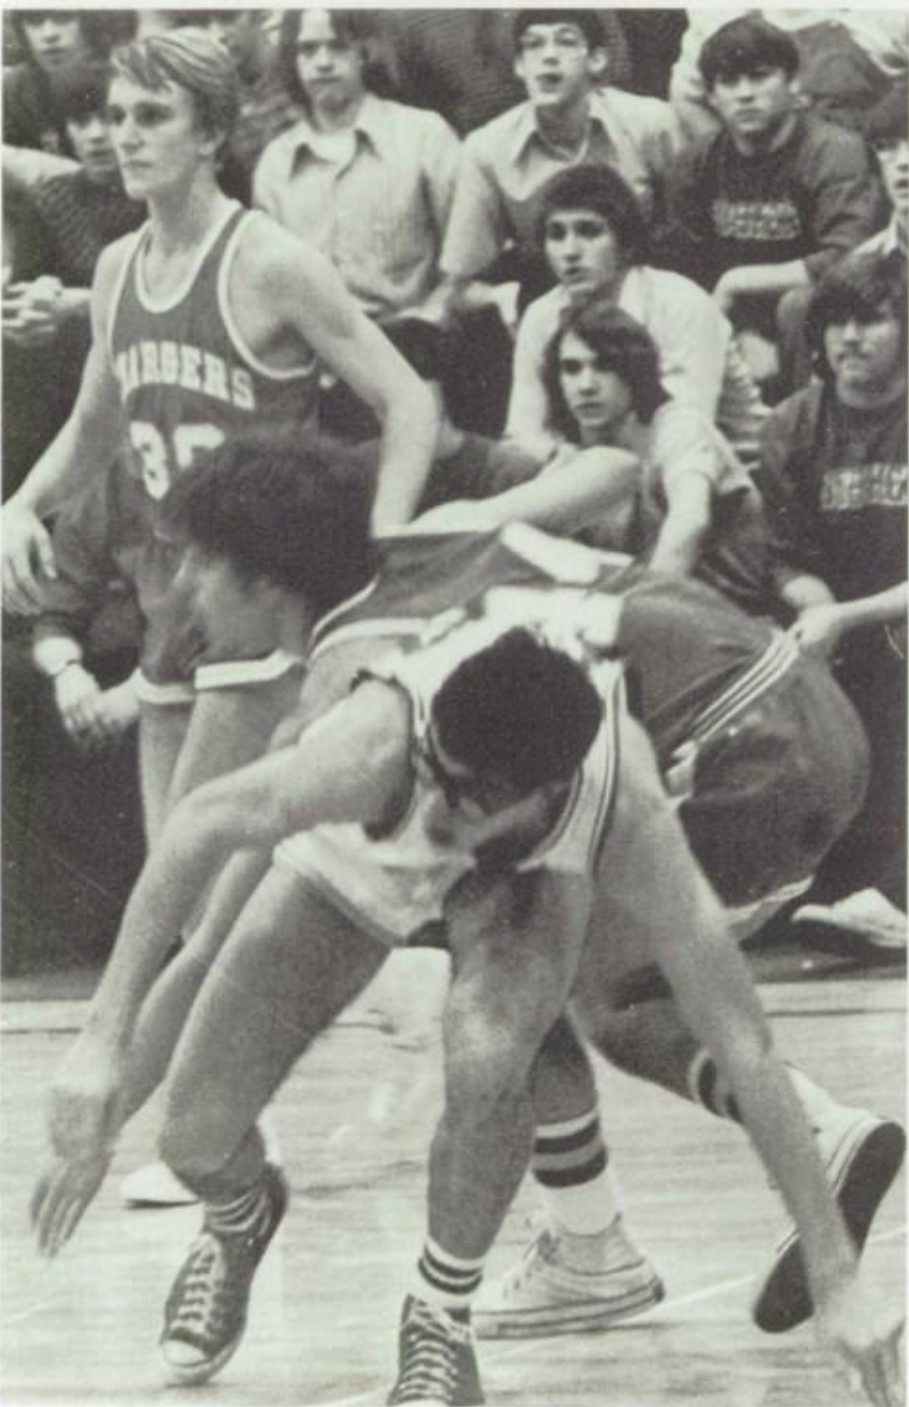

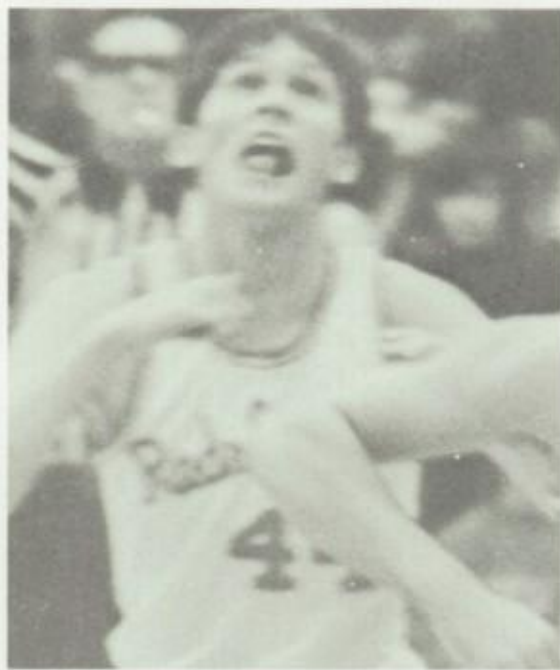

Due to a slow start, the basketball team ended with a 7-14 record for the season. Once the team won their first game, they provided the fans with some very exciting last second wins. One of the most jubilant wins was a 57-52 victory over Elkhart Central. Seniors Barry Kauffman and Scott Sherman were the top scorers for the team. Mr. Tuggle was the varsity coach and Mr. Weddell, of the Whiteman faculty, was the B-team coach.

A Night With TV

Those attending the Sophomore Variety Show March 23, spent "A Night with TV," the show's theme. Viewers turned in to such programs as American Bandstand, the Dating Game, the John Long Show, a soap opera, News, Weather, Sports and the Carol Burnett Show. Of course the show was interrupted by commercials!

Kay Keim was the master of ceremonies. Sue Rudy and Sally Weaver were student directors.

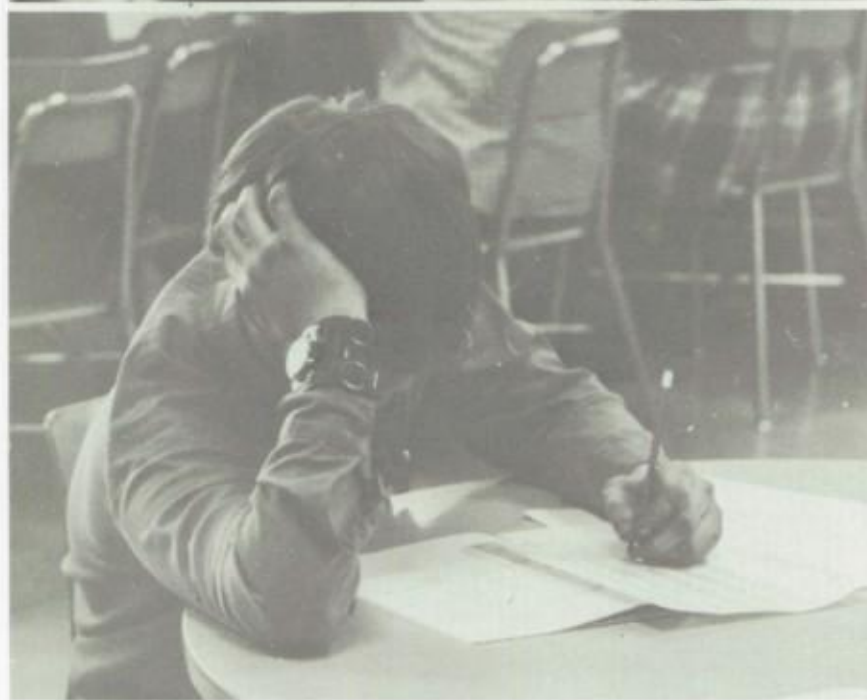

Smorgasbord

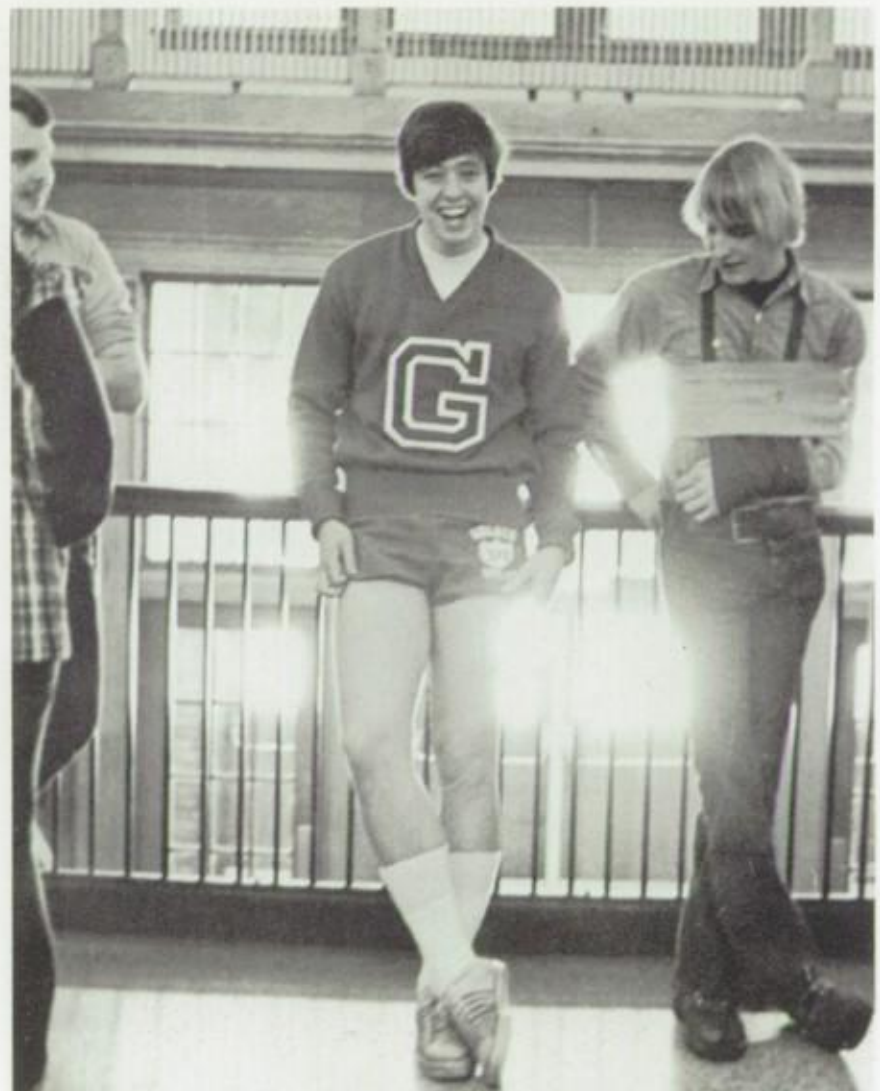

Miss Zook took her spring break a week ahead of time.

71 bags of clothes were sent to Knoxville, Tennessee in the Appalachian Clothing Drive held the last week in March. The GHS Student Council sponsored the drive.

Juniors took the traditional Iowa Achievement Test during the winter, racking their brains for the guidance department.

It wasn't hard to tell a new G-Man. Fred Mock, a wrestler, apparently enjoyed the chance to show off his legs.

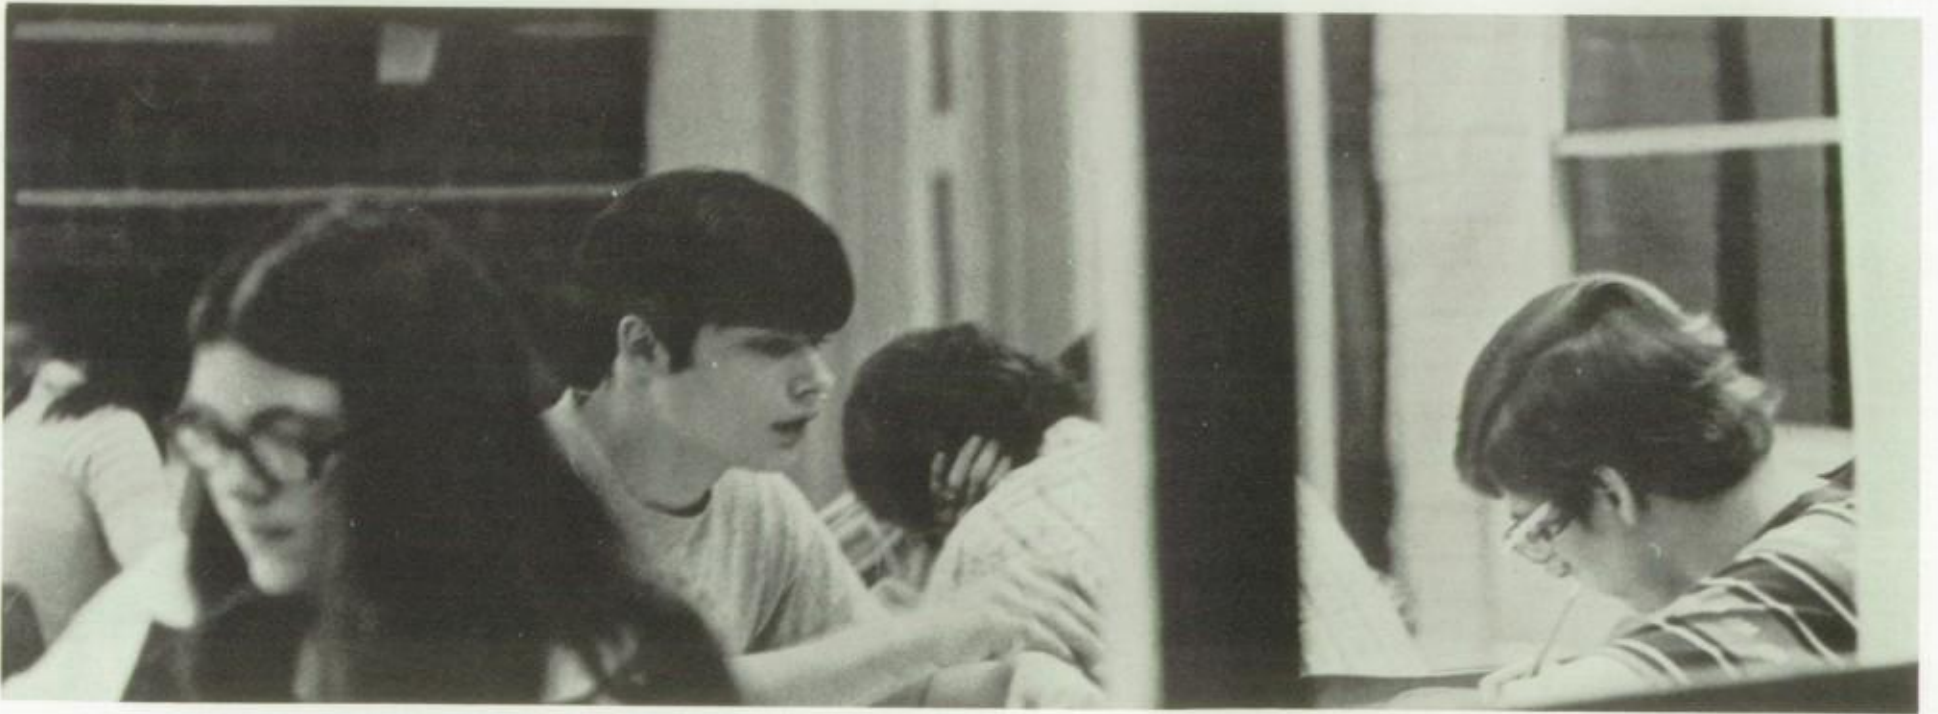

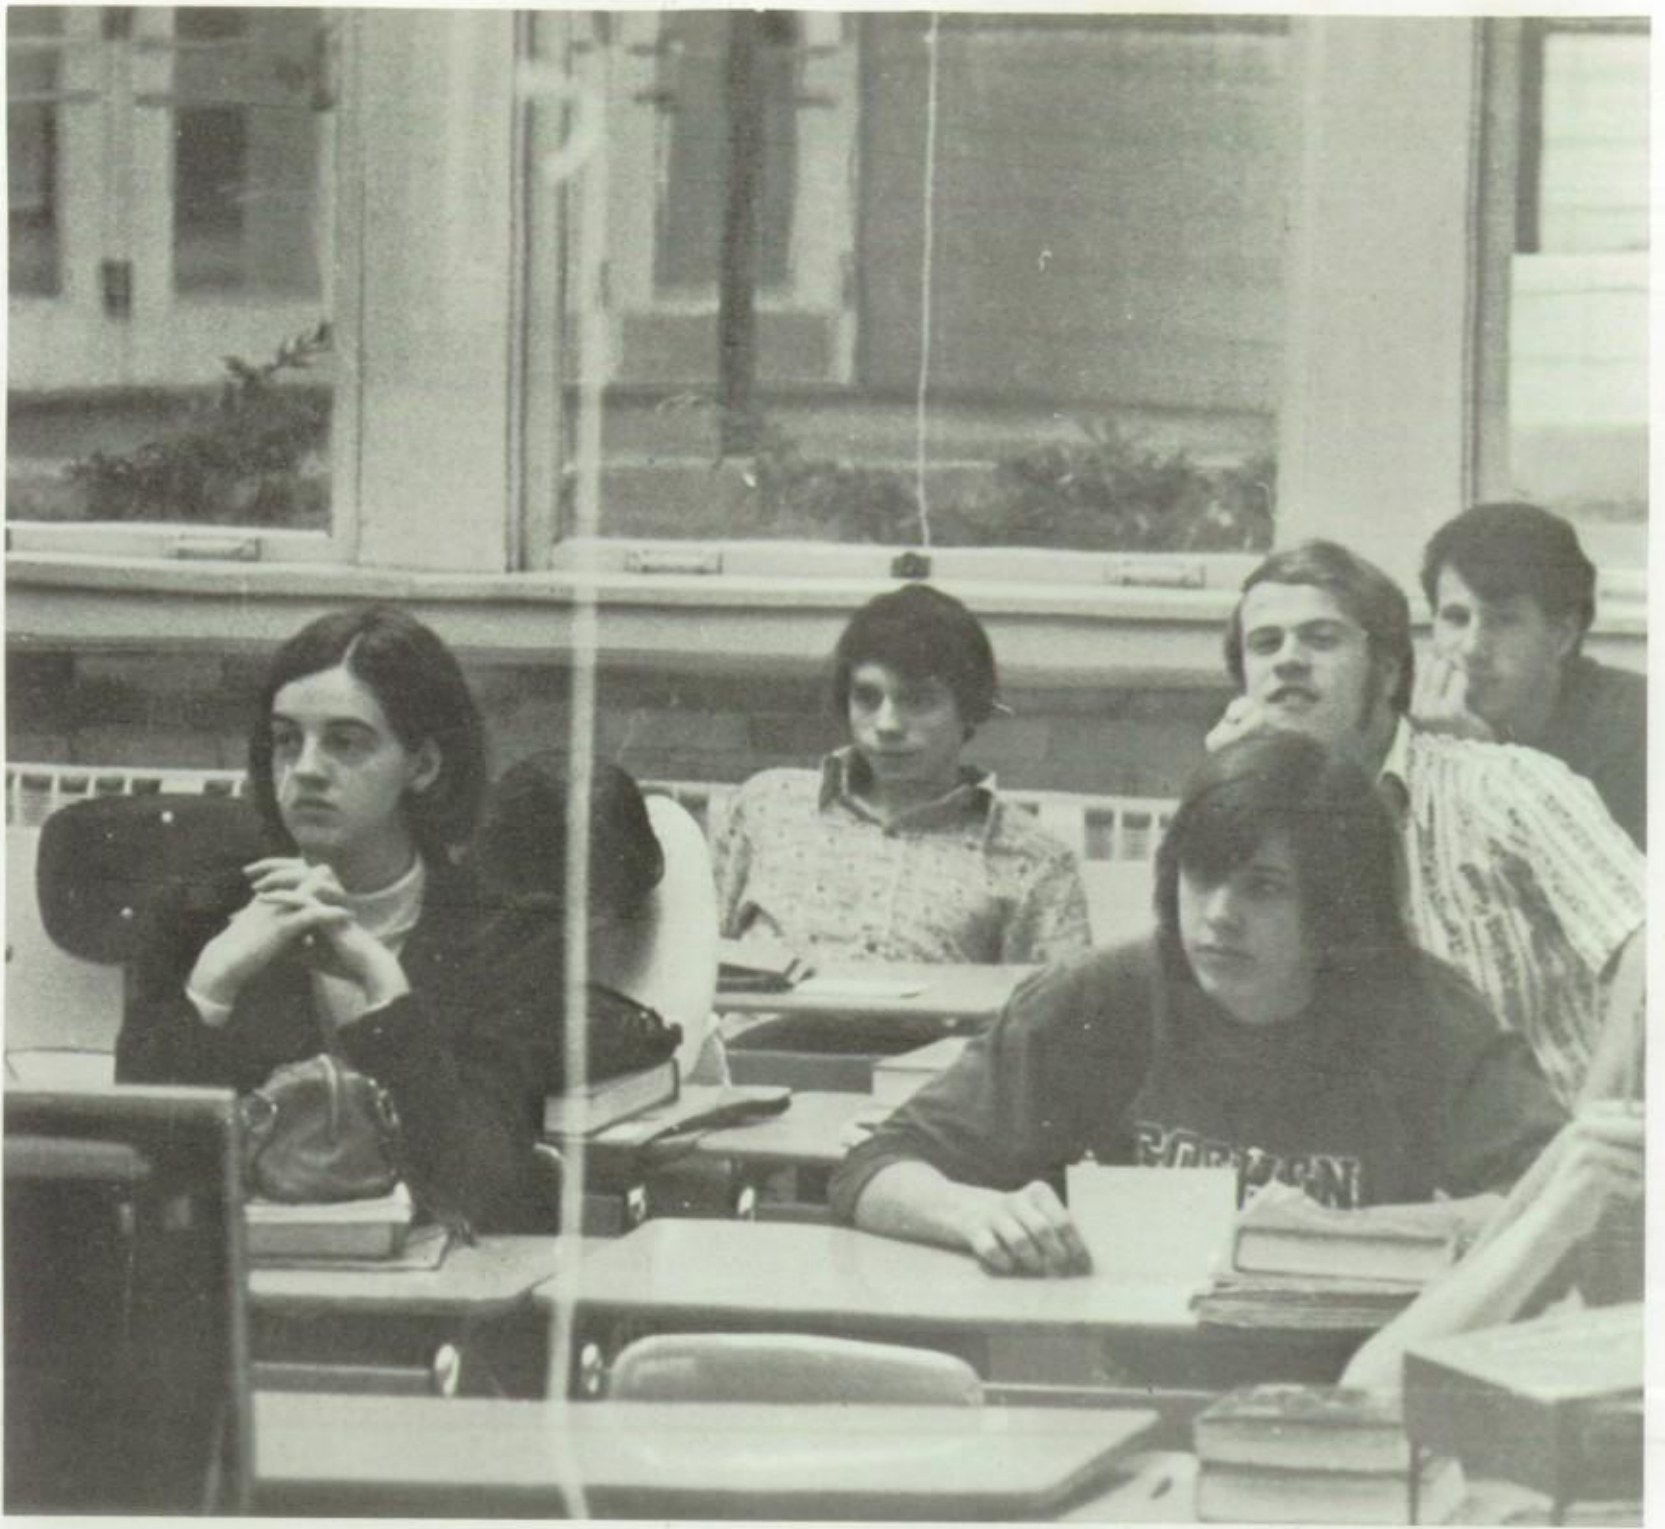

"I feel a song comin' on"

Under the skillful direction of G. Merrill Swartley, the 110 member choir and 22 member Crimsonaires were again popular groups in the Goshen community. "I feel a song comin' on" was the theme song for the Crimsonaires this year. They performed for the student body before Christmas vacation and for various civic groups during the year. The choir performed several concerts, most in conjunction with the band and orchestra. They also sang a mass at a local church. Dennis Fult was president of the choir. Other officers were: Anne Weaver, vice president; Deb Harris, secretary-treasurer; Frankie Kummeth and Melody Kaser, publicity officers; Betty Schrock and Cindy Kauffman, librarians; and Beth Herring, Cathy Stahly, and Dave Kindy, attendance officers.

*GHS Classrooms
Provide Varied
Learning Experiences*

Classes were the basic units of GHS existence. The teachers and students who worked at and attended this school did not always enjoy the normal school life. They looked forward more to the activities which are described and pictured in the major part of this book. It is, though, in the classrooms that the purpose of GHS is most fully carried out. Everything from bookkeeping to square dancing was experienced in this year's classrooms and it is not very likely or possible that any one student left this school in June without having learned something since September.

Petra Witte

GHS Exchange Students

Goshen High School had three foreign exchange students during the year. Petra Witte, of Hitler, West Germany, attended GHS throughout the first semester. She stayed with Cinda and Linda Stroman's family. At the end of the first semester she moved to Toledo, Ohio, and lived with a different host family. Ursula Schmidt, of Hungen, West Germany, attended GHS from September to the end of December. In February, she moved to Milpitas, California, and, after a few months there, returned to her home in Germany. While in Goshen, she stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller. Hehi Yeom, of Seoul, Korea, started attending GHS soon after the start of the second semester and graduated with the senior class. During the first semester she attended Northwood High School. While she was attending GHS, she lived with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cripe. All three girls came to this country through International Christian Youth Exchange. Exchanges coming through this program usually stay in their host country from August of one year to August of the next year.

National Honor Society

This year the National Honor Society functioned only as an honorary organization. The officers and their sponsor, Mrs. Johnson, felt that the members were involved in many school activities already and one more "club" activity would not be necessary or wanted. Seniors with a B grade average and juniors with an A grade average are candidates by their personal as well as scholastic qualities and the top 15% of the senior class and the top 5% of the junior class are then admitted into NHS membership. Using funds left in their treasury from previous years, the NHS held several "coke parties" in the guidance suite for persons on the honor roll.

BRIGADOON

"Once in the Highlands, the Highlands of Scotland, two weary hunters lost their way." It is this desolate situation which Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, two young New Yorkers, are contemplating when the curtain rises on a misty glen in Scotland. As the two exhausted men reflect on what they have forsaken in the States for their present predicament, a lift in the Highland veil reveals to them the awakening village of Brigadoon, a village which comes into being for only one day in each century.

The strained and strange greetings of the villagers bedecked in 18th century costumes, who have gathered in the market square to sell their wares and to discuss the final wedding preparations of Jeannie MacLaren and the boyish Charlie Dalrymple, are softened for Tommy by his encounter with Jeannie's lovely sister, Fiona, and enlivened for Jeff by his reluctant entanglement with the maid, Meg Bruckie.

The blissful occasion is momentarily tinged with gloom when the fate of Brigadoon is threatened by Harry Beaton, Jeannie's rejected suitor. And Tommy, now burdened with the knowledge of Brigadoon's secret and enraptured by the gentle charms of the beautiful Fiona, is confronted with the choice of remaining forever at the side of the Scottish lass or returning to the unsatisfying world familiar to him. At the close of the day he is still unable to commit himself without doubt or regret to Fiona and to Brigadoon, and leaves with Jeff for America.

Restless and unhappy in New York, Tommy finally yields to the haunting memory of Fiona and, guided by the faith and strength of his love, finds his way back to Brigadoon.

Jazz Ensemble Assemblies Enjoyed By All

The Goshen Jazz Ensemble was kept busy playing for area schools and other groups this year. They played at assembly programs for the student bodies of GHS, Towncrest and Whiteman Junior High Schools, and Bethany High School. They were well received by students and teachers alike. The group practiced hard in the evenings and even before school started in the morning. Mr. Plank was the group's director.

Marching Band Performs In Local Parades

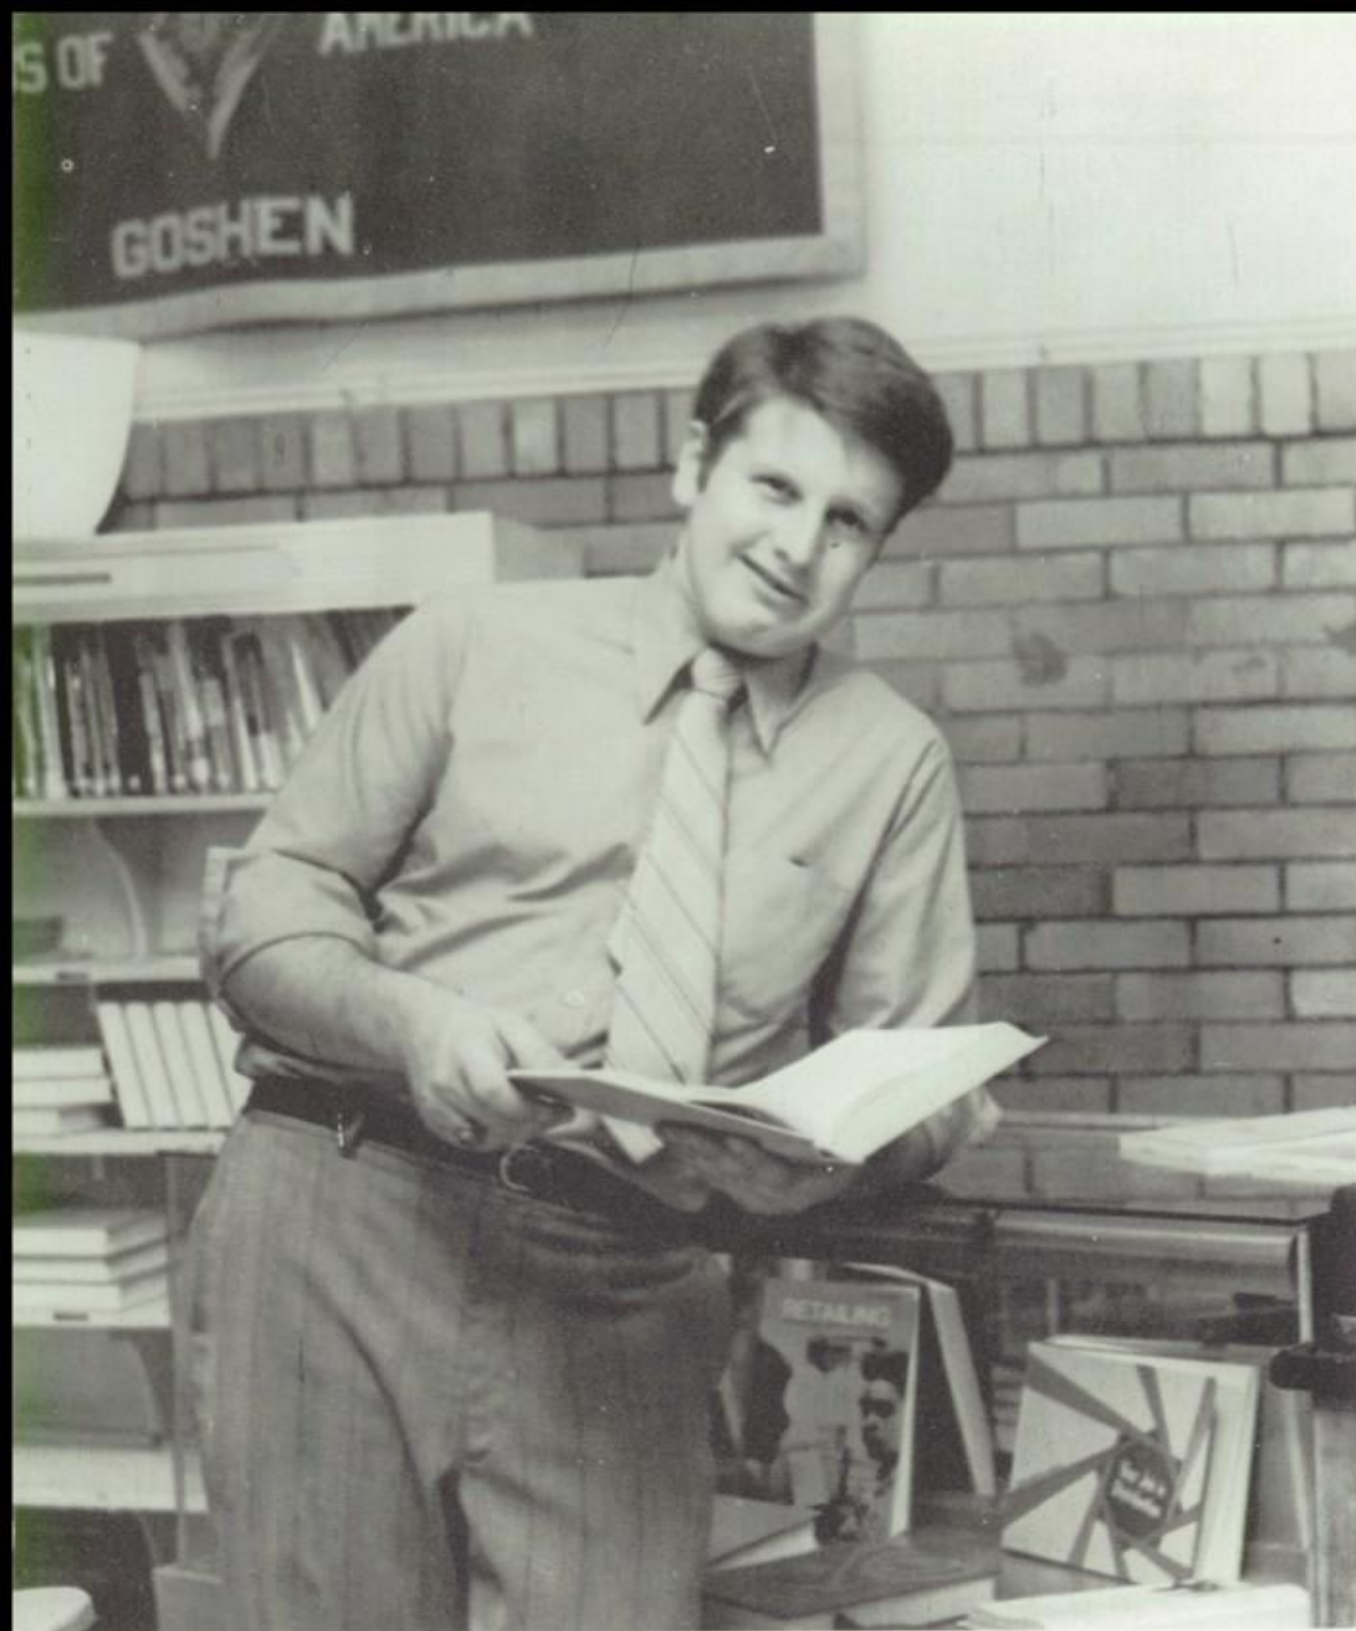

The GHS Marching Band did not always play for football games. They provided an appreciated service to the community by marching in parades such as the VFW Veteran's Day Parade and the Memorial Day Parade.

*O.E.A. and D.E.C.A. Students
Earn and Learn at the Same Time*

The Office Education Association, O.E.A., and Distributive Education, D.E.C.A., provided Goshen High School students with the chance to earn school credit and money at the same time. The students in these two organizations attended school in the morning and worked in the afternoon, earning credit all day. Office Education Association students worked in offices as secretaries and Distributive Education students worked in other types of jobs such as cashiers and stock boys. Mrs. Weddell was sponsor of Office Education Association and Mr. Wible was the sponsor of Distributive Education.

Noise, Sweat, Music, Tension Contribute to Hoosier Hysteria

Four groups helped to provide support for the basketball team. The cheerleaders, the pep band, the girls cheerblock, and the boys booster club all helped to back the team during the season. The varsity cheerleaders were Deb Baker, Lee Ganger, Sue Stine, Delores Troyer, Jane Troyer, and Peggy Yoder. Junior varsity cheerleaders were Connie Miller, Tanya Shand, Sharon Welsh, and Cindy Yeater. Miss Lambert was the sponsor of the cheerleaders. Pep Band accompanied some of the cheerleaders' chants and also performed some solo numbers. John Reiniche was the student director of the group. The cheerblock and the booster club also helped to back up the cheerleaders and lead the crowd in chants. Miss Lambert also served as Cheerblock sponsor and Mr. Weaver was sponsor of the Booster Club.

One of the many exciting G.H.S. convocations this year included a lively basketball game between the faculty and the intramural all-stars. At halftime the student body enjoyed a hilarious pie-eating contest that included several teachers and three boys, each representing their classes. David Kindy represented the Sophomores, Randy Morin represented the Juniors, and Joe Liechty represented the Seniors. The winner was Randy Morin.

The Senior Class of '73 put on its version of a Senior Follies during the month of April with the show billed as a success by those who attended.

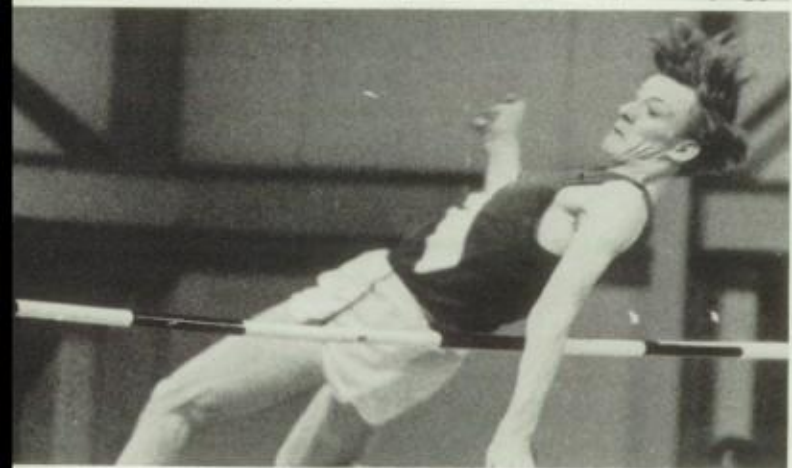

The theme, "Bananas," featured musical acts and band styles dating back to the 50's. Fifteen acts were presented to the audience. The profit, $300, was donated to the Goshen General Hospital in memory of Todd Lambright, son of teacher Wayne Lambright who died of leukemia. MCing the show was John Reiniche and Deb Harris. Mrs. Jacobson, speech and drama teacher, was the director and Jo Morse was the student director. Organization of the Follies was handled by Mary Wieland and Jan Thomas wrote the skits. Of special note was a parody on graduation done by Frankie Kummeth and others in the class.

Track Team Has 10-5 Record

Goshen's track team ended their season with an 10-5 record for dual meet competition. Their biggest lead in any dual meet was a 77 point margin of victory over Fairfield. Joe Liechty received the Most Valuable Player award. Mr. Weaver was the coach and Mr. Weddell, of the Whiteman faculty, was assistant coach.

Liechty Breaks Ten Second Mark in 100

The 31st Goshen Relays, the first on the new all-weather track, and the first organized under Mr. Beeson's direction was a big success with eight records broken and one record tied. Goshen, competing in Class B for the first time, broke three records. Joe Liechty broke the previous record in the 100 yd. dash, which was held by Jimtown since 1971 (10.0), by winning the race in 9.9. The mile relay team of Greg Riley, Rich Peck, Jim Fearnow, and Stan Burt broke Plymouth's record (3:32.2), which they held since 1971, with a 3:28.5 clocking. Goshen's 880 relay team, consisting of Stan Burt, Eric Holdread, Rich Peck, and Joe Liechty won their race in 1:32.2, toppling Nappanee's long-standing, since 1962, record of 1:33.6. Concord broke the previous record in the 880 Run by a little over one second. Jimtown broke the former shot-put record by over two feet. Mishawaka Marion broke the old Sprint Relay record by exactly a second. LaVille tied Garrett's record in the High Hurdles. All of the above records were Class B records. Class A records were also set in the mile run and the pole vault. Fourteen schools competed in Class A and nineteen in Class B, with a total of over 800 athletes competing. In Class B, Mishawaka Marion took first place with 67 points, followed by Goshen with 58 $\frac{1}{3}$ points. Concord finished a distant third with 36 $\frac{5}{6}$ points and New Prairie came in fourth with 35. Gary Roosevelt won the Class A competition with 77 points, the highest score since 1963 when Roosevelt attained 88 points.

Just before the start of the finals, Lee Ganger was crowned as Relays' Queen. The senior members of her court were Mary Weiland and Connie Ashley. The junior attendant was Jane Troyer and the sophomore attendant was Pam Brill. These girls presented ribbons and trophies to the winning athletes and teams.

Goshen's Perfect Sectional Win Streak Broken

Goshen's baseball team ended their regular season with an even .500 record. Steve Spotts, the team's pitcher, was given the Most Valuable Player award. Seven did not turn out to be the team's lucky number. After winning the last six sectional games, Goshen lost, in an extra inning, to Wawasee in the final sectional game. Mr. Hoffman, of the Towncrest faculty, was the coach of the varsity team and Mr. Houk was the B-team coach.

Banquets Honor Individual Athletic Achievements

Goshen athletes were honored at three different sports banquets during the school year. The fall, winter, and spring sports banquets were each held at the end of the respective seasons. The individual athletes were presented with letters, blankets, and trophies for such things as most valuable player, most improved, and best mental attitude. There were also special awards in certain sports.

Good Turnout at '73 Prom

The Class of 1974 treated the seniors to a successful prom on the evening of May 5th. The theme used by the junior class was "Springtime in the Park." The band which played for the prom-goers was "Jasmine Tea." The prom had a good turnout and was enjoyed by all. Instead of movies, the GHS pool was opened for swimming from 12 to 3 AM following the prom. The First Lutheran Church served free breakfasts from 1 to 4 AM to those who attended the prom. Barry Kauffman and Deb Lewallen were voted king and queen of the prom.

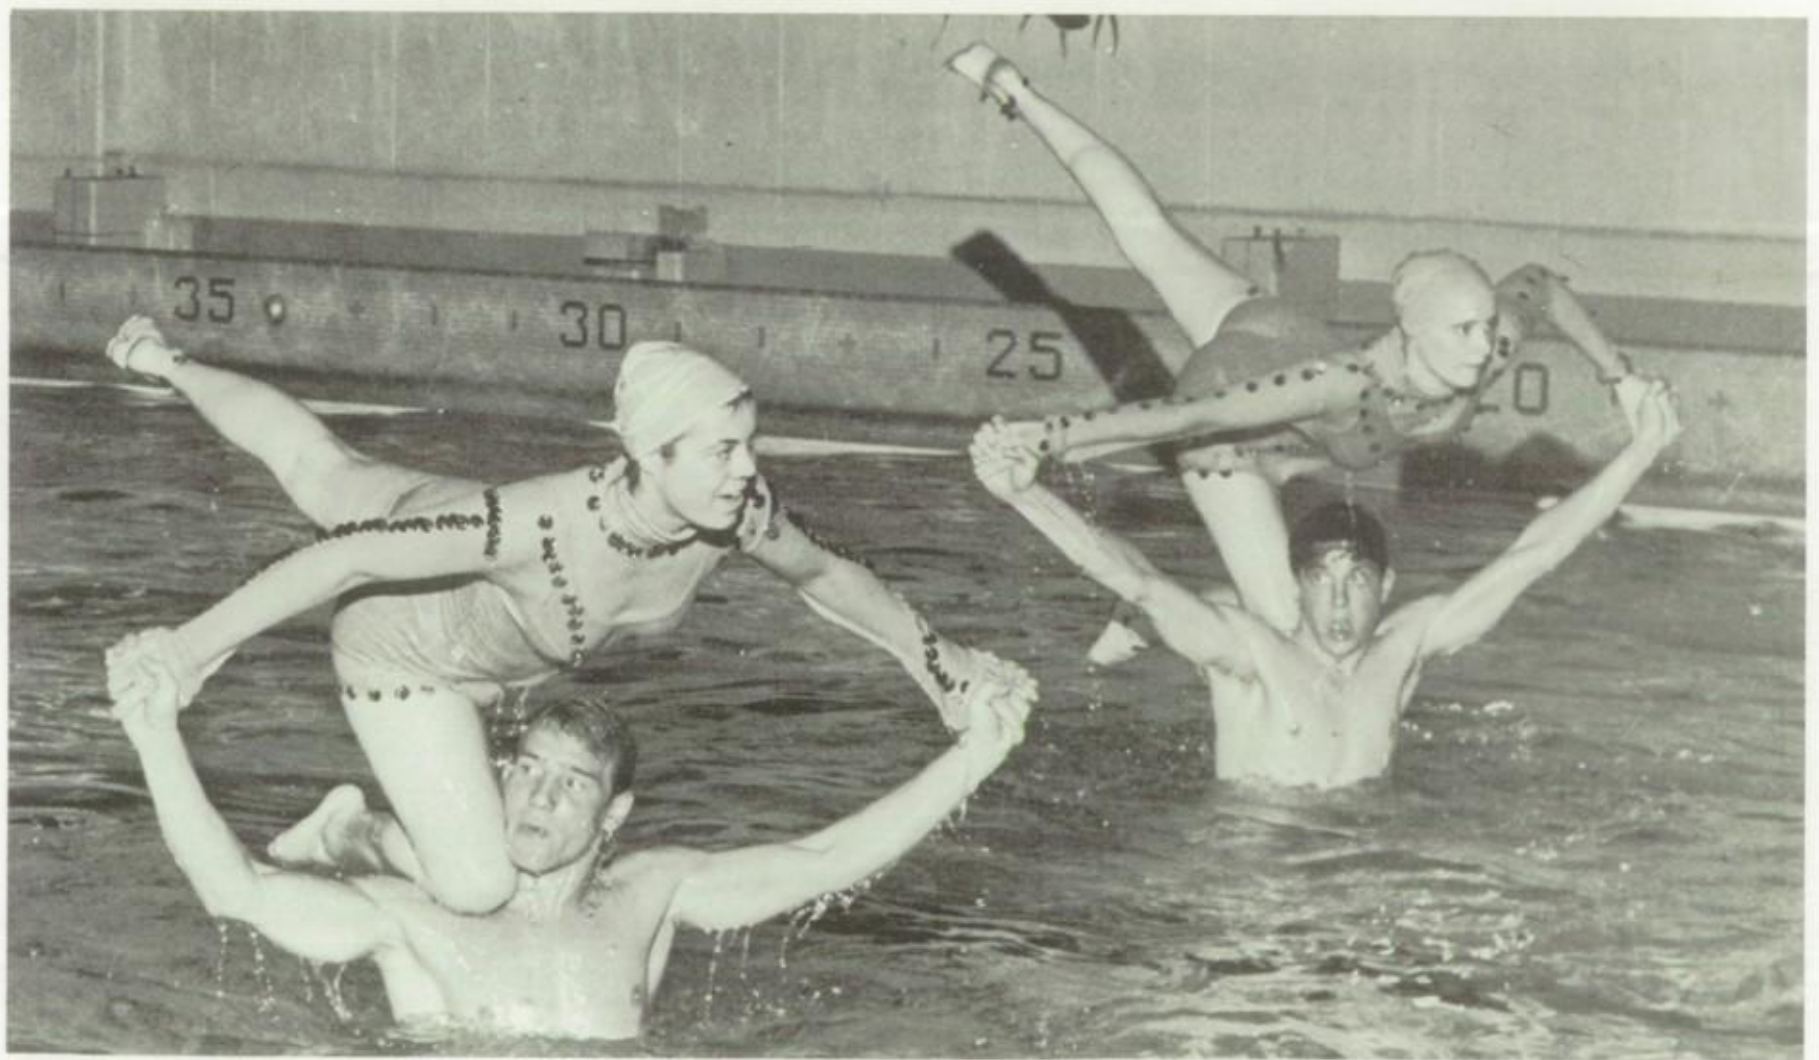

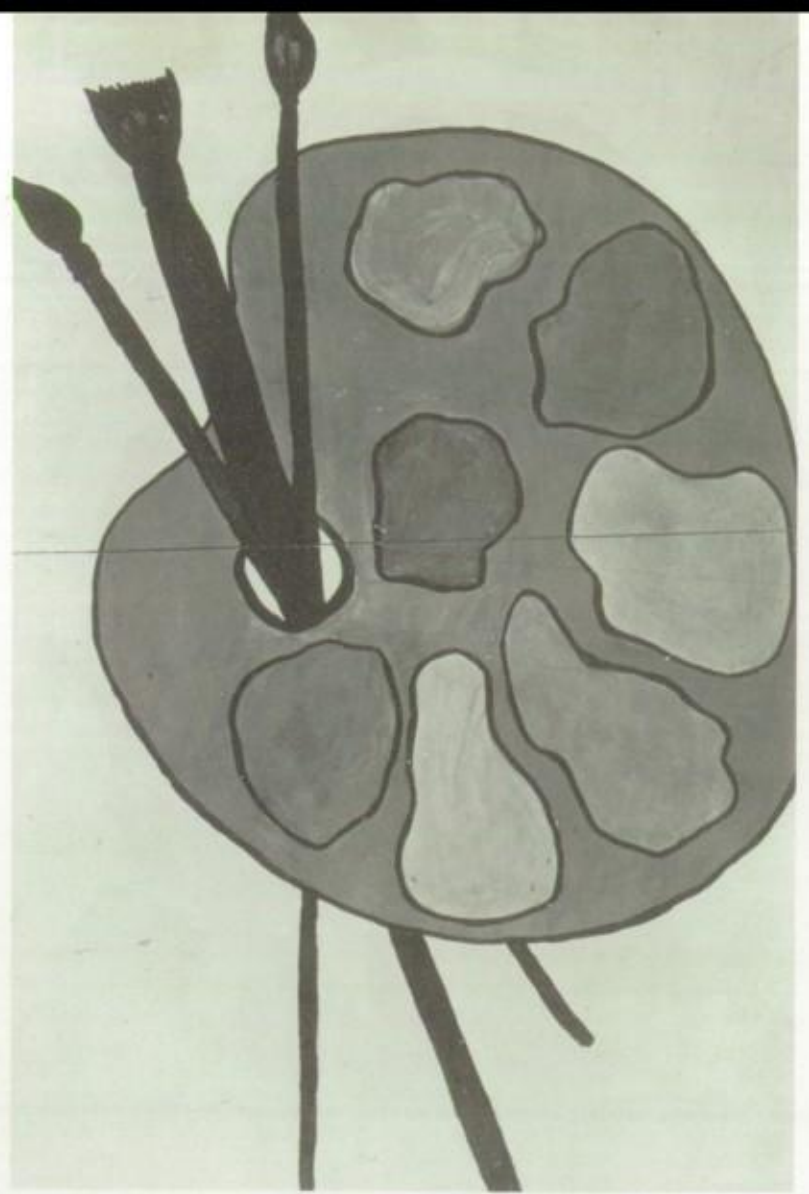

"Springtime

Park"

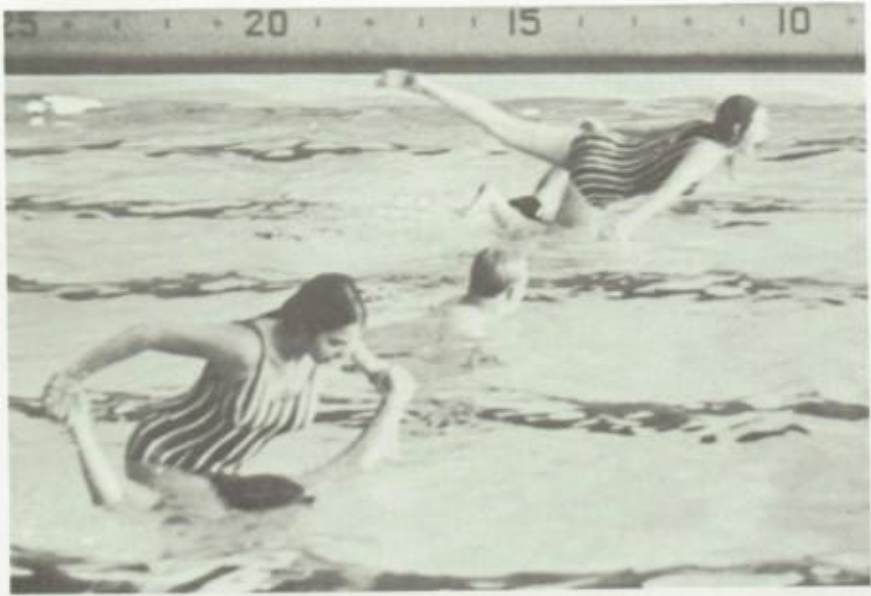

Color My World . . .

The Aquatics Club put on a very successful show this year using the theme "Color My World." The show was put on, after months of hard practice, on May 11 and 12. Formerly an all-girl organization, this year's group included a few male members, enabling the show to perform a few different feats. Mrs. Allen sponsored the group and she was again assisted by Mrs. Wade.

535 Walkers Finish 20 Mile
Route of 3rd Annual Hunger Walk

There was a good turnout for the third annual Walk for Hunger which was held on May 12th. Despite rainy, chilly weather, 646 walkers started the Walk and 535 of those finished the entire route of 20.2 miles. The first Goshen High School student to finish the walk was David Lantz, a sophomore, who came in fifth. Carol Kauffman, a GHS senior, came in 21st and was the first girl to finish the walk. Anne Weaver and Susie Barker were co-chairmen of this year's Walk. As usual, registration started at 8:00 and the Walk started around 9:00, preceded by several speakers and music, this year provided by Prairie Rose.

Variety of Clubs Active at GHS

Pan-Am Club

Pan-Am Club, the language club for students taking Spanish, met about once a month throughout the school year. The club's membership was small and the meetings were informal. Von Rassi was president of the club. Other officers were Joanne Marttila, vice president; Cathy Lamb, secretary; Liz Shoup, treasurer; and Susie Barker, publicity. Mr. Horneman was the sponsor of the club.

Library Club

Library Club provided student workers to help at the circulation desk and perform other jobs in the library. Officers of the club were Vicky Hausbach, president; Debbie Cripe, vice president; and Dorothy Steele, secretary-treasurer. To raise money to add more books to the library, the club sold a variety of paperbacks in the library throughout the year. Joan Wogoman was chairman of these paperback sales. Mrs. Burns was the sponsor of the club.

Chess Club

The Chess Club had a successful year in the dual meets and tournaments in which they competed. They won the trophy pictured on this page in a 35 team tourney in Indianapolis. They placed third in this tourney. Their first dual meet, November 9th, provided the team with its first shut-out win. This meet was played against Northwood. Officers were Dan Hertzler, president; Ed Geleske, secretary; Joe Liechty, treasurer; and Randy Clouse, tournament director. Mr. Blosser was the sponsor of Chess Club and the club often held its meetings in his home.

Seniors Receive Many Awards

Many awards were given to seniors, and a few to underclassmen, on Senior Awards night, May 17th. 44 Goshen seniors were awarded fifteen different scholarships, including 25 Indiana State scholarships. Among those pictured on these pages receiving awards are Galen Hershberger, the James Phend Memorial Award; Cynthia Smucker, the Literary Club's Medal for the Outstanding Senior Girl and a Menno Simons Scholarship; Joe Liechty, the Mathew Arnold Memorial Award, the Elks Athletic Award, the Psi Iota Xi Scholastic Medal in Science, a Menno Simons Scholarship, and an Indiana State Scholarship; Dan Hertzler, the Rotary Key for the Outstanding Senior Boy, the Psi Iota Xi Scholastic Medal for Math, the National High School Math Contest award, was named a National Merit Scholar, a Menno Simons Scholarship, the Goshen College Merit Scholarship, and an Indiana State Scholarship. Kris Raber and Barb Rowits, both sophomores, were given scholastic sweaters by Goshen News for earning straight A's in all subjects for a year.

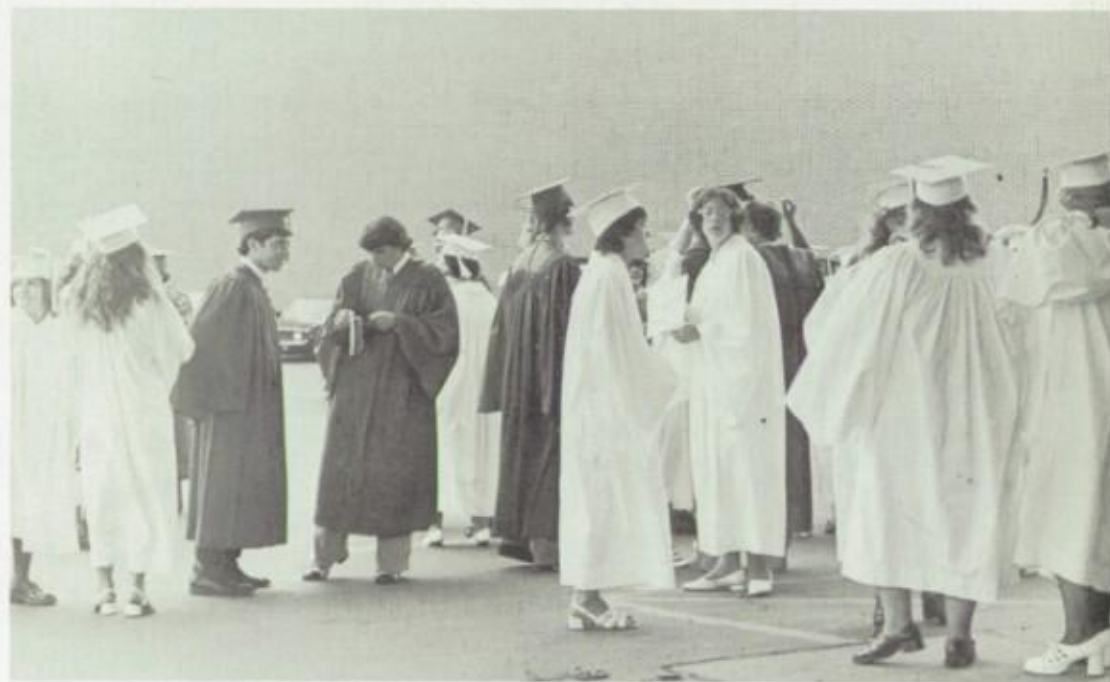

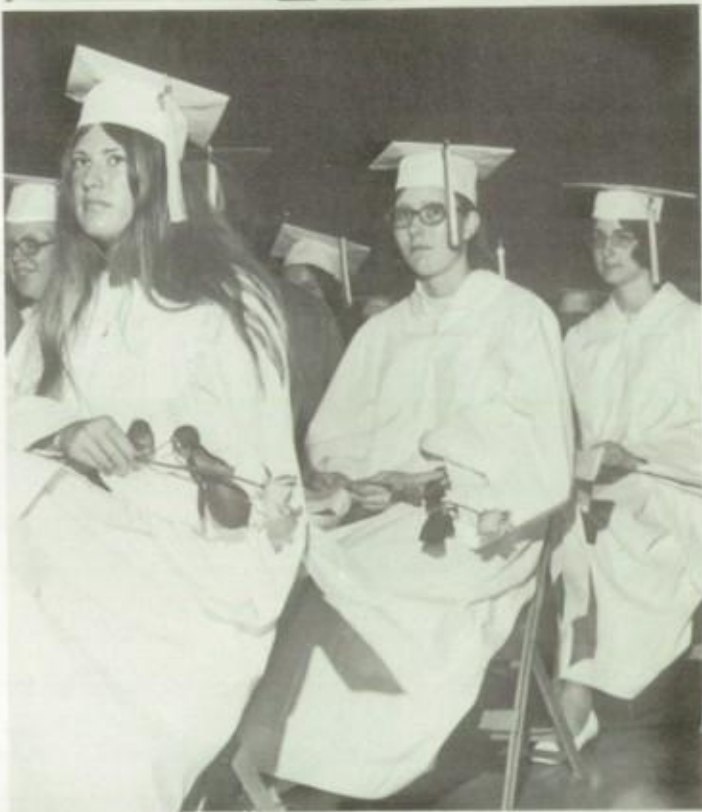

"... Sooner than I'd expected."

The Class of 1973 graduated on June 5. Plans for an outdoor ceremony were dropped due to rainy weather. The baccalaureate and commencement programs were combined this year. Rev. Donald Moody gave the invocation and sermonette. He was followed by "Doc" Bowen, Indiana's new governor, who gave the commencement address. The 291 seniors received their diplomas and were pronounced graduated by school board president, Philip Neff. The school choir sang several numbers and Deb Harris sang the class song, "It Was So Easy," written by Carly Simon. Dan Hertzler and Mary Weiland were co-valedictorians and Lee Ganger was salutatorian.

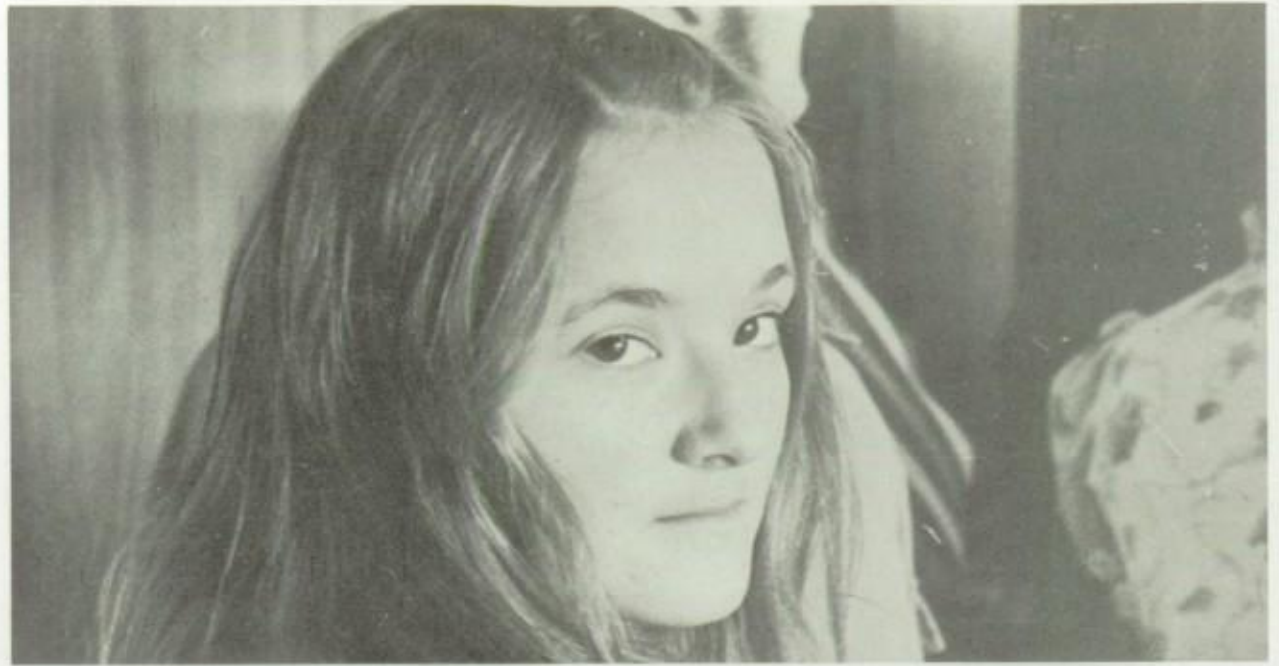

"Suddenly, a wisp of smoke.
My wandering mind returned.
It had burnt out
Sooner than I'd expected.

I told myself it wasn't important.
Just a silly
Candle
You know.
But I guess it had made itself important
When I wasn't looking.

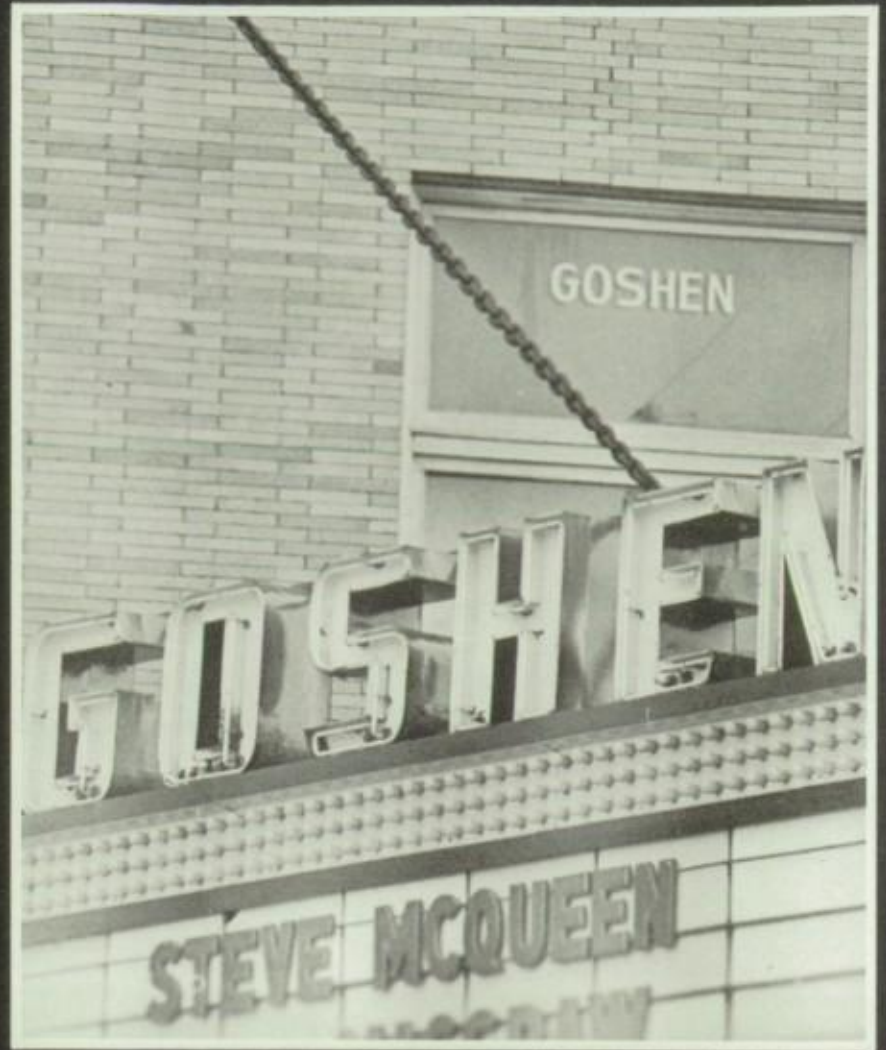

The end . . .

(of "Student Life")

Goshen . . .

When a sociologist tries to understand a person, he must examine a number of factors. Not the least of these is the person's environment. For the same purpose we have included this photographic essay on Goshen. In order to understand Goshen High School we must examine Goshen, Indiana. We have therefore provided a glimpse, short though it may be, of institutions and people which directly or indirectly influence us.

Goshen has been in existence approximately 135 years. How was it back then?

In 1839 the editor of the Democrat wrote: "Money scarce — candidates thick as blackberries — fine prospects for wheat — business dull — matrimony no go — camp meeting coming — high taxes — prairie wolves on the run — hearts stirring up for the glorious Fourth — orators stirring up their ideas — publican laying in the liquor — pigs and chickens preparing to die — the anti-tobacco society raising a smoke, and a church so full they can take in no more members. So much for Goshen."

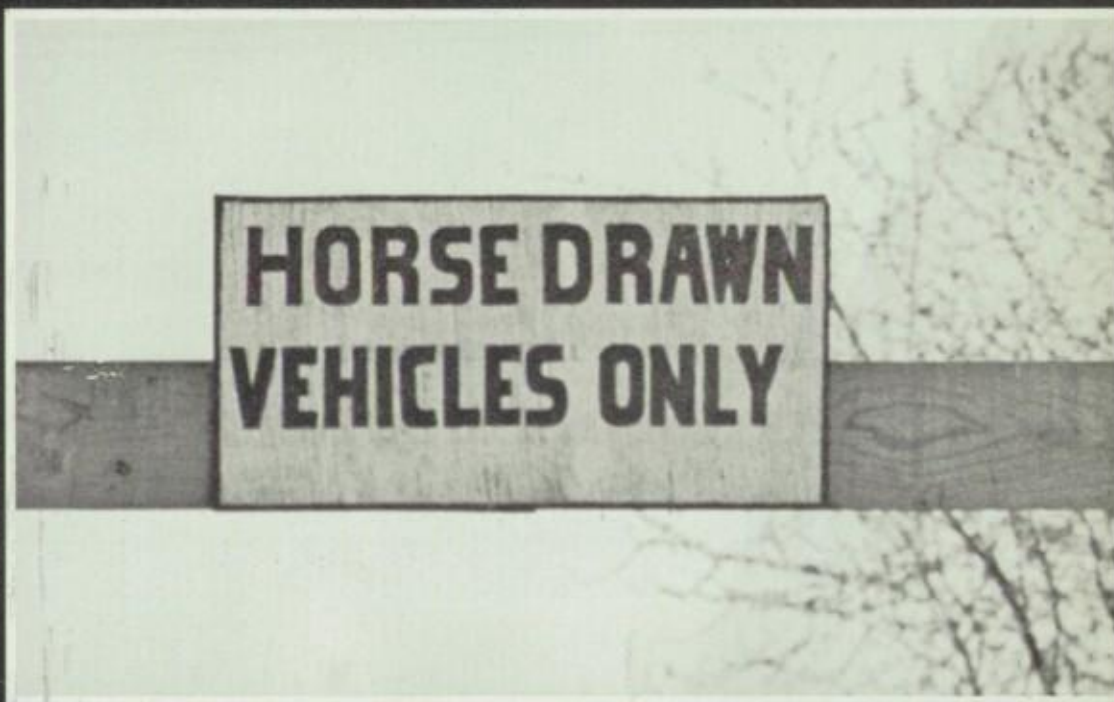

Have times changed? Well, mostly yes, but we're sure a few things looked familiar!

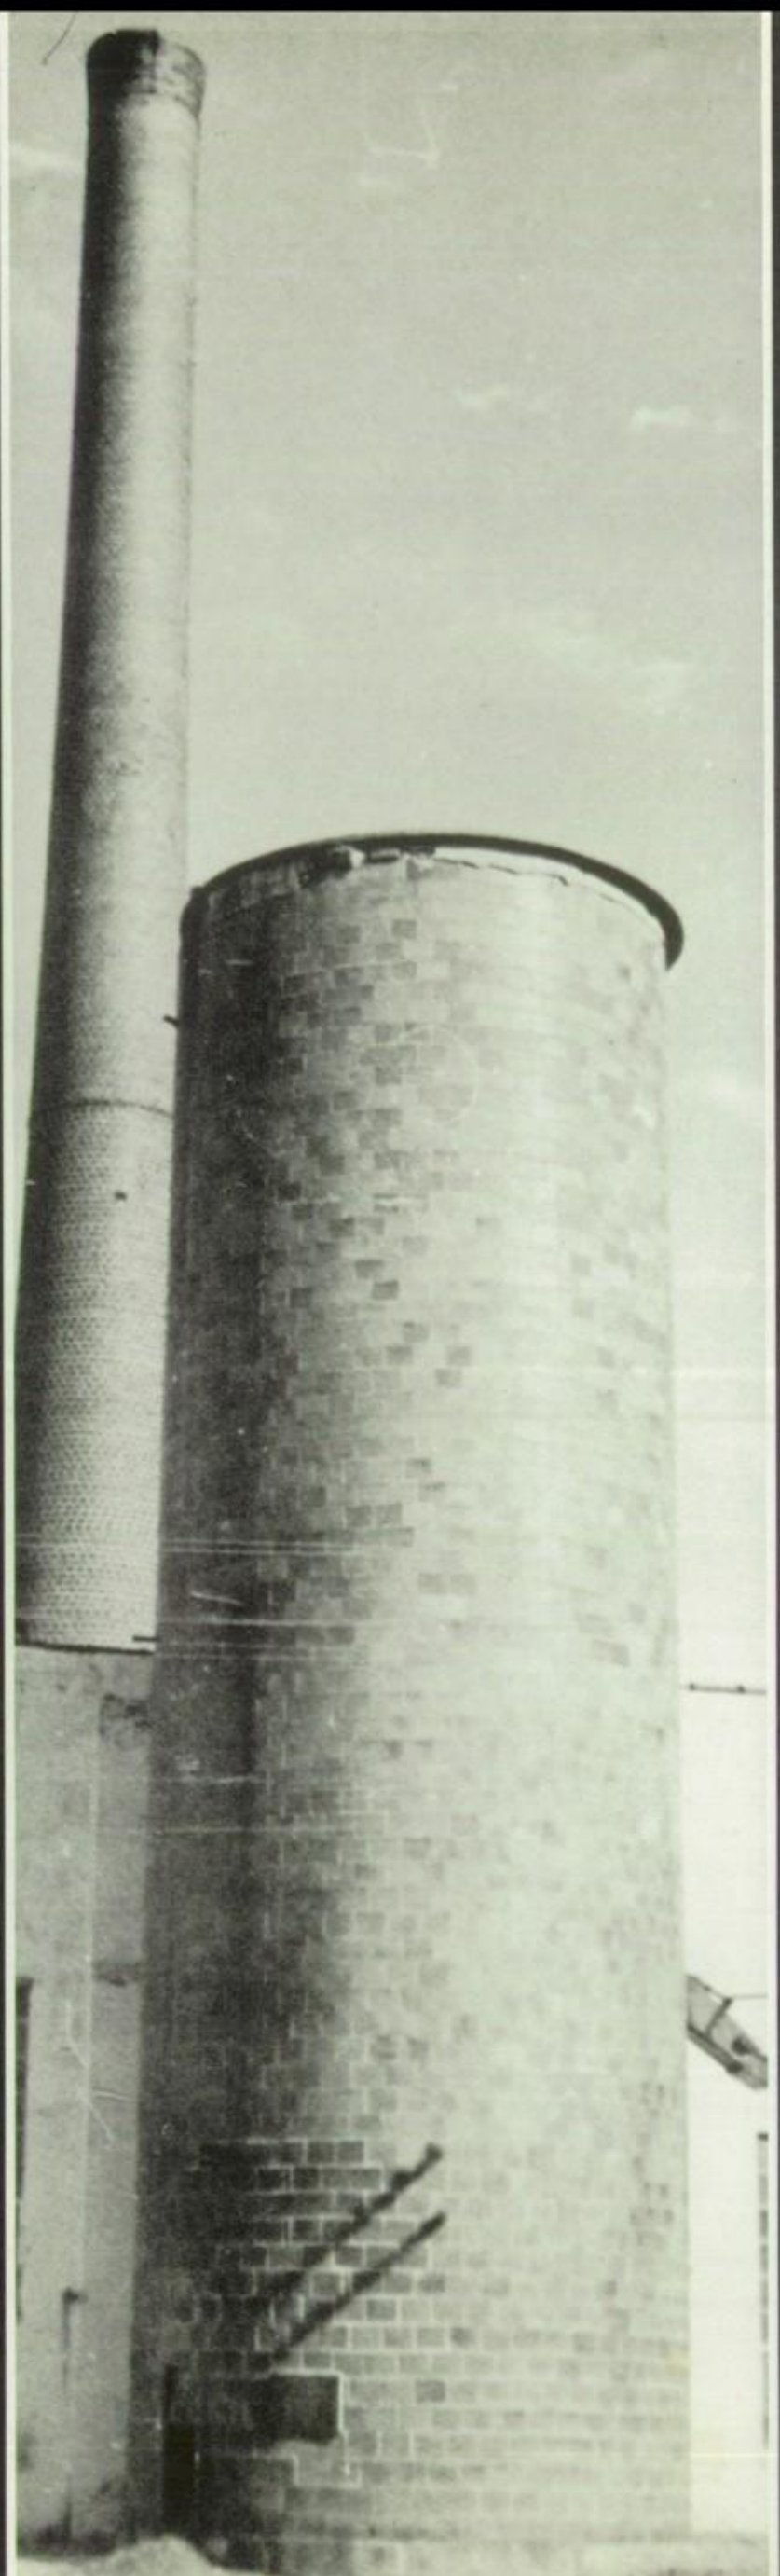

Goshen is a melting pot. Almost every conceivable cultural group is represented: southern white, Amish-Menonite, college students, chicanos, hippies, and pseudo-hippies, children and senior citizens, and plain old middle-class suburban-type people. In the last couple of years, even a few Blacks have moved to Goshen. It's what's known as peaceful coexistence. Of course conflict occasionally does arise, but no one seems to get too excited. We're content to live in our own worlds, united only in a geographic sense.

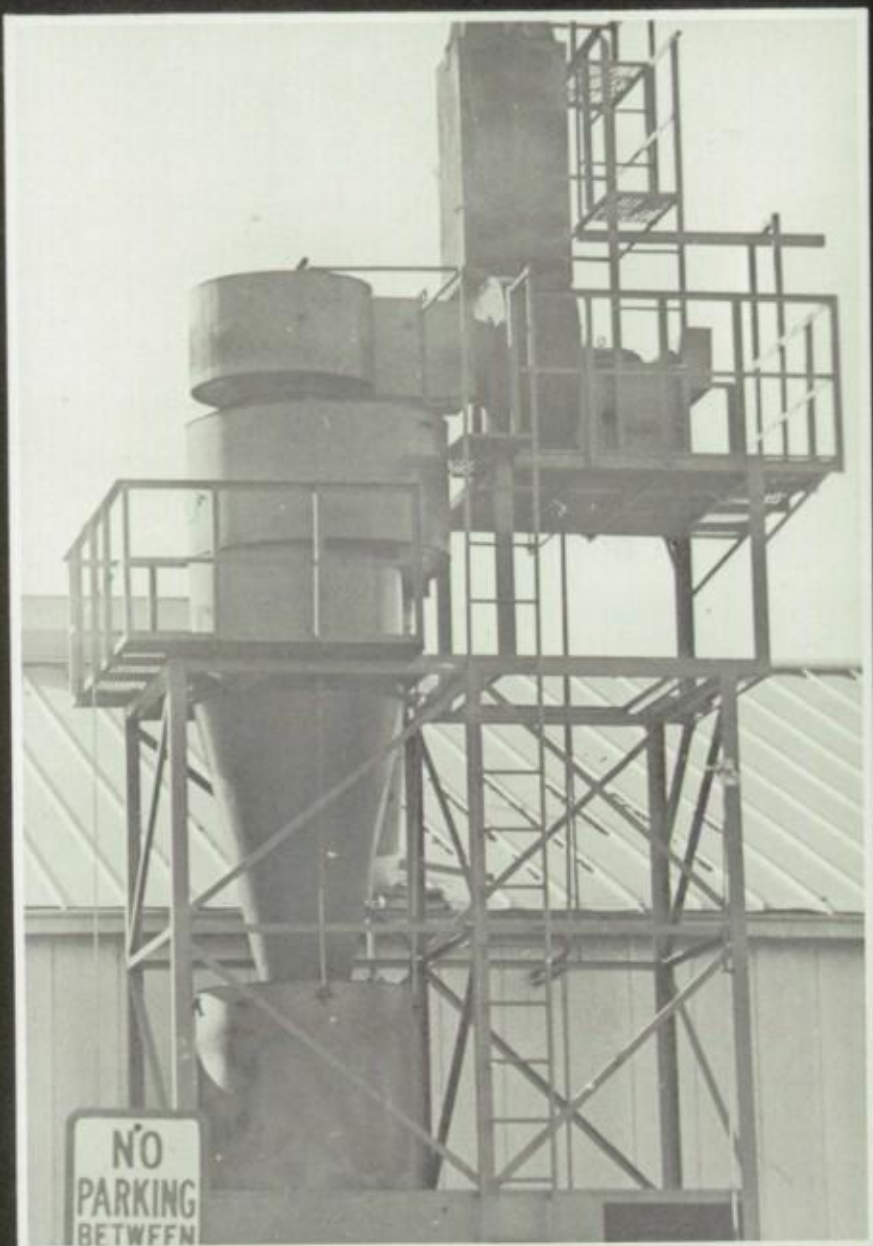

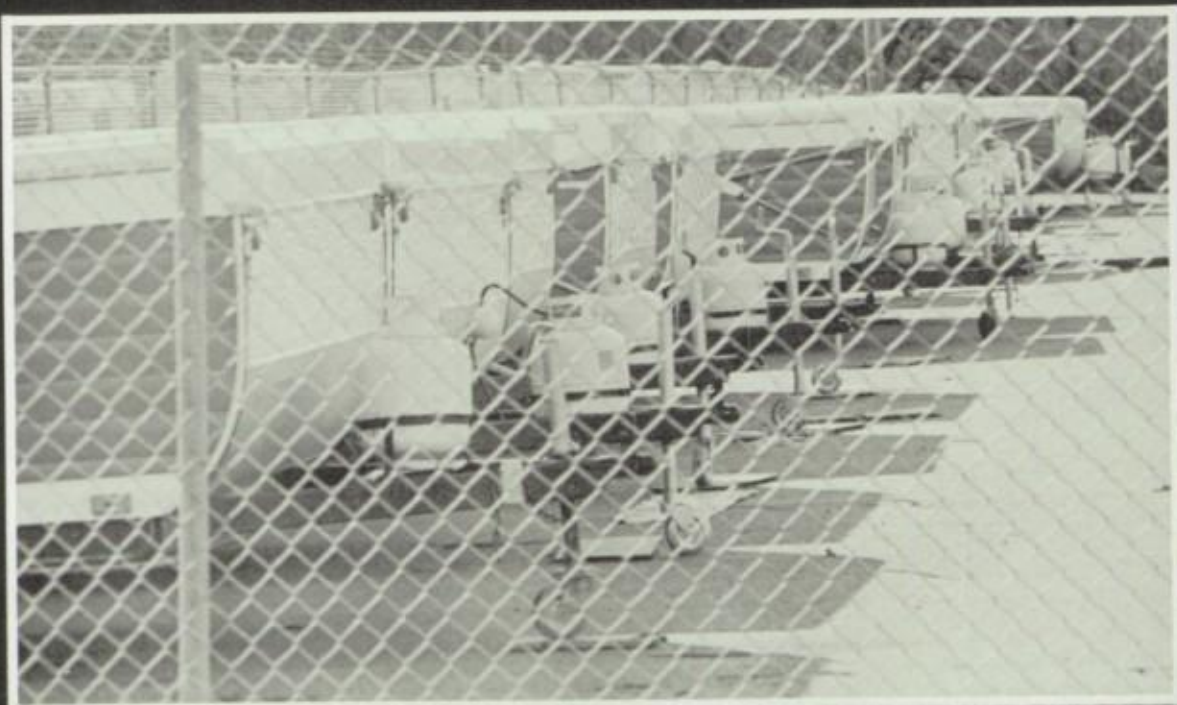

What of the city which those of us who choose to make our homes here will live in?

Judging from the present, the future will bring more industry, swallowing up the countryside. There will be jobs and economic prosperity. But economic prosperity does not necessarily mean quality of life. We can only hope the rush for it will not overshadow the consideration of other levels of life.

Mrs. Linda Garber taught in the Social Studies area, but left GHS after one semester, no picture.

*Guidance,
Attendance,
Secretaries*

The Guidance Department was staffed by Mr. Mathews, also an assistant principal; Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Ashley, and Mr. Kastner, who spent two periods teaching psychology and four periods in the guidance department. During first semester Mr. Kastner taught one period of sociology in addition to his psychology classes and only worked three periods in the guidance department. Mrs. Hoover was the secretary in the guidance department. Mrs. Hess was the attendance officer (a nicer term than truant officer) and Mrs. Ogle worked in the attendance office and the school bookstore. Mrs. Bixler did general secretarial work, including the typing of the daily announcements and some of the semester exams.

"I told myself it wasn't important . . ."

Mr. Johnson completed his seventh year as principal of Goshen High School. Before coming to Goshen he served as principal at Attica High School and Boswell High School. He holds an undergraduate degree from Indiana University and his Master's Degree from Purdue University.

Mr. Johnson announced his plans to leave the high school's principal's post in June. He accepted a similar position at a high school in southern Indiana. Mr. Johnson became principal at Goshen in 1966 filling the shoes of Dr. Charles Fields who is now located in Michigan City as a superintendent.

In addition to their duties as assistant principals, Mr. Mathews served in the guidance department and Mr. Beeson took over the position of Athletic Director, succeeding Mr. Underwood who retired last year. Mrs. Blosser was Mr. Johnson's secretary and also served as the treasurer of Goshen High School funds.

" . . . But I guess it had made itself important . . . "

Goshen School Board members are Philip E. Neff; president, Nancy M. Lantz; vice president, John D. Ulmer; secretary, Lloyd G. Stump, and Harmon M. Williams.

For the second year in a row the Goshen Community School System had a new superintendent. The new superintendent was Dr. Gary B. Seymour, who succeeded Dr. Donald Bivens who resigned after a one year term. Dr. Seymour has had several years of experience of teaching and serving as a superintendent in an elementary district in Washington, Illinois, and as a Unit Superintendent in Payson, Illinois. He holds degrees in elementary education, psychology, and sociology. He received his doctorate in educational administration during April, 1972.

Frank A. Algate moved up to the post of assistant superintendent which was vacated by Harold Bechtel who retired after almost half a century of work as teacher and administrator in the Goshen school system. Kent Adams was the Director of Special Services for the Goshen schools. This post puts him in charge of the buildings, grounds, and transportation in the school system.

The production of this yearbook took place in a way that, for this school, is totally new.

Yearbook was a class. Second period, nine to ten, we descended upon our "offices" to perform our duties. The result, a less frantic, end-of-the-year book.

The ironic thing about doing a project such as this yearbook is that you don't really get proficient at it until it is three-fourths done. By that time you know about five ways to do the yearbook that would have been better. So for what it is worth, we present to you the 72-73 Crimson. It's not the best yearbook that will ever be produced at Goshen High, and that is good. We do hope it is better than past yearbooks.

Since we're supposed to say something serious and profound on this page, here it is:

Wouldn't it be nice if students at this school would quit wasting their energy complaining about Goshen High School and Goshen, Indiana? Granted, there is a time and a place for constructive criticism, but complaining is certainly not constructive. Anyone who has managed to get away from Goshen for a period of time knows people complain anywhere and everywhere, with the possible exception of cemeteries. We'll risk a cliché in recalling the old proverb, "The grass is always greener on the other side of the fence." Listen people, you are only young once, so get the most out of it while you can . . . wherever you live. Don't let the cancer of meaningless rebellion, complicated by apathy, eat away at your life.

We would like to thank, first of all, the English Department for letting us use the lounge. It was less crowded, more working room, thus quite a bit more organized. Also, there were a few outstanding staff members who were always willing to come in and help. Joe Springer did an excellent job on the Sophomore class, copy, headline, and index. He was very dedicated and came in whenever he could crawl through the window. Joellen Boomershine did a fantastic job on Ads. For the first time in a long time, the Ads were all sold by November, which took a lot of desperation out of the end-of-the-year worries. Joellen also worked hard, and did an excellent job on the Junior section. Suzanne Alheim was a great help on the Senior section and faculty. They were all a great group of students. Lastly, a big thank you goes to our fearless leader, our sponsor, Mr. Snyder. He has been a great help with everything. He offered his help when we needed it, but he didn't force it on us.

Becky Mock, Editor-in-Chief

Today's Army wants to join you.

We won't guarantee you anything we can't pay off. (If we guarantee you Hawaii, start waxing your surfboard. You'll need it.)

Everything we guarantee will be put down in writing. In a legal document that you get a copy of. (If you agree to sign for computer training and the Delayed Entry Option, it will all be spelled out in language you can understand.)

We want you to know without a shred of doubt that you'll get everything you signed for. So we'll give you this card. On the front is what you signed for. And on the back is an address to write to in the Pentagon, just in case you didn't get what's on the front.

We think today's Army has a lot to offer you. We'll try to convince you of that. That's our job. But we'll never try to mislead you. That's our job, too.
